Heavy Losses in Men and Guns Reported at St. Petersburg.

DRIVEN TO SHIPS

Main Landing for Troops Now Close to Wiju.

RUSSIAN FORCES ENTRENCHED

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—It is rumored that Admiral Togo's Fleet has escorted a great number of transports laden with troops to a point westward of the mouth of the Yalu. The expedition began to disembark, not discovering a large force of Russian troops lying in concealment.

Twelve thousand men had been landed when the Russians attacked, driving them back to their ships with heavy losses in men and guns. The Vladivostok squadron is reported to have made a sortie.

SEOUL, April 15.—(12:40 p. m.)—(Special Cable, Herald Copyright.)—The Japanese landing operations have been transferred from Chinnampo to Chullan. The latter is only 40 miles east of Wiju, where the Japanese army of the north is concentrating. Definite information concerning the number of troops landed there is unobtainable, but from the transports arriving there must be at least two divisions.

The Chemulpo and Chinnampo landing scenes are here repeated, and on the same scale. It is evident the Japanese intend concentrating a large force at Wiju before attempting to cross the Yalu.

Constructing Forts.

Advices from Fusan state that the Japanese army is actively engaged in the construction of eight forts for the protection of the southern terminus of their rapidly developing Korean railway system, which is forming an important portion of the Japanese military scheme. It is also reported that Masampho is the scene of great military activity. The Japanese are constructing strong fortifications, protecting an excellent harbor which has an opening into the Korean straits. The importance of this cannot be overestimated, as the straits form connecting naval links in sea communication between Port Arthur and Vladivostok.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—A dispatch from Liao Yang says the Russian entrenchments on the Yalu river have been completed. The center of the line of fortified positions is Antung. The right flank rests on Tatungkau, and the left flank on Kiulien Cheng, on the west bank of the Yalu.

Gen. Kuropatkin is concentrating his second line of defense between Mukden and Liao-Yang. He will have 120,000 men there by April 24.

TIENTSIN, April 15.—It is asserted here that the reason for the delay in the movements of the Japanese army in Korea is that over 12 per cent of the troops are suffering from a malignant sickness, described as being a species of beri-beri.

LONDON, April 16.—The Times correspondent at sea off the coast of Korea, under yesterday's date gives the following story of recent skirmishes on the Yalu river:

"On April 3, a Japanese cruiser to reconnoiter the mouth of the Yalu found the enemy holding both banks of the river. Reconnoitering by steam launch was abandoned and last Sunday Lieut. Kyaguchi, with five men disguised as Korean fishermen in a native junk surprised a Russian post at a village on the left bank. The Russians retired without resistance.

Killed One Russian.

"A quarter of an hour later two squadrons of Japanese cavalry from Cheng-Ju arrived and destroyed the Russian post. Lieut. Kyaguchi then determined to reconnoiter the right bank of the river toward Antung, and met in mid stream a junk engaged in a similar reconnaisance for the Russians. The junk drew off and stranded on a sand bank. One of the Russians was killed and the rest took to the water. The Japanese continued fire when the Russians threw away their rifles and were obliged to wade neck deep in order to reach the mainland.

"Meantime a second Russian junk with 17 men landed on the sand bank and tried to rescue the stranded boat, but they were forced to abandon the effort and with difficulty escaped.

"The Japanese are still busy at Chennampo landing a quantity of bridging material and other necessaries for a determined advance through the difficult country."

VLADIVOSTOK SQUADRON NEXT MARK FOR JAPAN

NAGASAKI, JAPAN, April 15.—(Special Cable)—Your correspondent has the best authority for information to the effect that Admiral Kamimura, whose squadron has been watching the Russian Vladivostok squadron since the recent attack, reports that he hopes soon to give a good account of it, if he does not succeed in capturing the four cruisers now bottled up at Vladivostok by him.

HEARST LIKELY WON FIGHT IN THE ERIE DISTRICT

Sawdey is probably elected. The fate of the Guffey-Rilling combination in control of the county will be decided in the convention tomorrow.

HOPE FOR POBIEDA

Report of Verestchagin's Death Officially Confirmed—Duke Cyril Better.

PARTIAL LIST OF THE DEAD

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

St. Petersburg, April 15.—The Japanese are allowing no let-up at Port Arthur. Closely following up their successes on the sea, the fortifications were bombarded today from 9:15 in the morning until 1 o'clock this afternoon. The Japanese fleet was in two divisions and bombarded the fortress and the town alternately from the Liao Tishin promontory. In all 185 projectiles were fired.

The fire of the Japanese fleet was answered by the Russian squadron, including the battleship Pobieda from her anchorage, with a plunging fire. The batteries also replied.

The losses on land were seven Chinese killed and five soldiers and three Chinese wounded. No serious damage was sustained by either the fortifications or the fleet.

In the reports of the naval conflict on Wednesday, several mistakes have come to light and were corrected today, but there are many details of the conflict and the loss to Russian arms that are still unknown.

Itrashni Was Sunk.

The magnitude of some of these errors, doubtless due to the excitement and horror at Port Arthur, may be approximated by the fact that the correct name of the Russian torpedo boat destroyer sunk by the Japanese Wednesday is not the Beztrashni, as was officially reported, but the Itrashni. The Beztrashni is still safe.

The condition of the Russian fleet at Port Arthur can best be realized when it is known that now there are in the harbor only two undamaged battleships—the Peresvlet and the Sevastopol. Some of the vessels damaged by the Japanese have been repaired, though their exact number and condition are not known.

The other effectives are the armored cruiser Bayan, the first-class cruisers Askold and Diana, the second-class cruiser Novik, the torpedo gunboats Vsadnik and Gaydamak, the gunboats Gremiashchi, Otvashni, Giliak and Bobr, the cruisers Djidjid, Razboynik and Zabiaka, and the torpedo boat-destroyers, whose exact number is not known. Altogether, 10 Russian vessels have been damaged or lost since the outbreak of the war.

Hopes In Fleet Ended.

The disaster of Wednesday ends the hope that the ill-fated Port Arthur squadron would be able to become an aggressive factor in the operations before it is reinforced by the arrival of the Baltic fleet. Until then the aim of the Russians will be to hold Port Arthur and conserve the remaining ships within the protection of its guns. Temporarily the last faith in successes at sea died with Admiral Makaroff, and the Russian people now look to the army, in which they have implicit confidence, to retrieve on land the reverses and distress suffered on the water.

As a result of the depressing influence produced by the loss of the Petropavlovsk, some pessimism is manifested, and in consequence all kinds of wild talk are heard. It is said that the Petropavlovsk was blown up by a submarine boat furnished to Japan by Great Britain, which, of course, would mean war with Great Britain. In furtherance of this idea, it is pointed out that the British parliament has granted permission for Indian troops to cross the frontier of Thibet, which, naturally, means only that Great Britain is preparing to aid her ally by advancing upon Central Asia. But such talk finds no echo in responsible quarters.

Forced to Seek Safety.

Out of the maze of conflicting reports regarding the sequence of events leading up to the destruction of the Petropavlovsk it is now established that Vice Admiral Makaroff early Wednesday morning took out his squadron to engage a weak division of six Japanese cruisers which appeared on the horizon after the Japanese torpedo boat which sank the Bezatrashni had been driven off by the Bayan. Particulars of the torpedo fight are still lacking.

The Russian commander-in-chief pursued the Japanese cruiser division until it was reinforced by 11 battleships, when he retired into the outer roadstead, where he was drawing up in line of battle when the disaster to the Petropavlovsk occurred.

The exact circumstances of the destruction of the battleship are not known. It is certain that both her boilers and magazine exploded, but it is not absolutely certain that she touched a mine, although the weight of opinion at the admiralty is that such was the case, and that if so, it was a Russian and not a Japanese mine.

Pobieda Slightly Damaged.

The injuries to the Pobieda are declared to be slight. The explosion which injured her took place just at the water line. The opinion expressed at the admiralty here is that it was produced by a spent Whitehead torpedo which was floating on the surface of the water and which may have been fired during the torpedo boat fight.

Further details as to the enormity of the loss of life in the sinking of the Petropavlovsk are slowly coming in.

The admiralty has received official information that Vassili Verestchagin, the celebrated painter of battle scenes, was among those lost by the sinking of the Petropavlovsk. This sad news was an-

IMPERIAL PALACE MASS OF RUINS

Korean Emperor Forced to Flee for Life from Burning Buildings.

CONSPIRATORS SUSPECTED

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]
(Copyright, 1904, by the New York Herald Co.)

Seoul, Korea, April 15.—A terrific fire broke out last night at the imperial palace and the emperor was compelled to take refuge in an adjacent government house.

The fire broke out at 10 o'clock on the evening of April 14. With the exception of the Kiuseiken building, which is in the European style, all the other palace buildings were consumed. The emperor took refuge in the library of the Kiuseiken building. It is believed that the fire originated in the heating apparatus of the Kauvei palace, which was undergoing repairs.

All the archives, treasures and jewels were destroyed. The fact that the palace buildings were walled led to their utter destruction, according to the correspondent, because the palace guards prevented the entry of the Japanese fire brigade, which was early on the spot and which might have prevented the spreading of the fire but for the obstinacy of the guards.

Apparently there were no fire appliances within the enclosure, and therefore the fire spread with furious rapidity, scattering millions of sparks as the tiled roofs and low wooden buildings came crashing to the ground.

Japanese soldiers and other legation pickets kept order in the constantly increasing crowd. While the Japanese were parleying with the Korean guards, the fire began to spread in the direction of the legation. At this juncture British and French marines effected an entrance by the back gates, but it was too late to save anything.

The fire will cease only in the morning when there is nothing more to burn. The emperor behaved with remarkable coolness and personally superintended the escape of his retinue. It is doubtful if the palace will ever be rebuilt.

The emperor received the members of the diplomatic corps Thursday afternoon in a stone house outside the palace.

The imperial palace is a massive structure four hundred years old. It is built in the style of the old feudal structures, and contains within its walls a constant guard of 500 men. Within the confines of the palace grounds 2,000 retainers live. The palace is not the oldest of the emperor's homes. He has another in which he lived for many years, but one night a snake fell from the ceiling of his bedroom, according to a well circulated story, and Yi Hevi immediately moved to his present imperial abode.

Of Emperor Yi Hevi, or Yi Hyeung, as it is also spelled, little is known outside of the date of his birth, accession and marriage. He was born on September 8, 1852, and succeeded to the throne on January 12, 1864. His life has been one of constane dread of assassination. He is said to be in reality a nervous wreck, almost afraid of his own shadow.

USE OF WIRELESS MAKES MEN SPIES

Czar Issues New War Decree Made Necessary by Modern Science.

A PROTEST FROM AMERICA

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15.

Wireless telegraphy has written a new chapter of international law.

By decree made known to the United States and all the world today Russia will henceforth regard as spies all newspaper correspondents transmitting dispatches from the zone of war by wireless telegraphy. Press boats equipped with wireless will be considered lawful prizes. Through the advance of science, Russia has been obliged to enunciate one of the most stringent bits of war law in history.

Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, today handed Secretary Hay this note:

"I am instructed by my government, in order that there may be no misunderstanding, to inform your excellency that the lieutenant of his imperial majesty in the far east has just made the following declaration:

"'In case neutral vessels having on board correspondents who may communicate news to the enemy by means of improved apparatus not yet provided by existing conventions should be arrested off Kwantung or within the zone of operations of the Russian fleet, such correspondents shall be regarded as spies and the vessels provided with such apparatus shall be seized as lawful prize.'"

This opens a wide range of possible international complications. By its operation, neutral correspondents are forced into the position of a third enemy. This government has accepted the notification without comment and awaits with interest the verdict of the rest of the world. The preponderance of opinion is that the decree is grounded in sound doctrine.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The American De Forest Wireless Telegraph Company has telegraphed to Secretary Hay at Washington a protest against the attitude of the Russian government relative to the use of wireless telegraphy by correspondents in the zone of war. The protestants say:

"We claim the right, under all international laws, to use the high seas for peaceful purposes and demand for our operators, who are American citizens, and for our property the full protection of the United States government."

Standard Oil Company Founder Succumbs to Pneumonia at Atlantic City.

WAS ILL BUT A FEW DAYS

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Young's Ocean Pier.
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., April 15.

Samuel Andrews, partner with John D. Rockefeller and Henry M. Flagler in the creation of the Standard Oil Company, died at the Hotel Brighton here this afternoon of acute pneumonia contracted but a few days ago. With him at the time of his death were his wife, five daughters and his son and daughter-in-law. Five physicians, Prof. William Osler of Johns Hopkins university, who attended Senator Hanna; Dr. A. H. Smith, Dr. Max Einhorne and Dr. Decker of New York city, and Dr. Francis Bennett of Atlantic City, labored three days to save his life.

Mr. Andrews came here from Palm Beach, where he had been spending the winter. He was not in robust health, owing to a driving accident which he met with in Central park, New York, two years ago. His home was in Cleveland, O., but for several years he has been residing in a cottage at Lakewood.

When he came here he was in a weak condition, but the colder climate seemed to give him strength after coming from the south. Monday afternoon he was on the boardwalk, and when he returned he complained to his wife of not feeling well. A physician was called and a cold was diagnosed, but it quickly developed into pneumonia, which rapidly passed to the acute stage.

In the formation and development of the Standard Oil Company, out of which he received his fortune of millions, Mr. Andrews was known as the "practical" man and Mr. Rockefeller as the financial manager and organizer. Mr. Andrews was credited with having developed many of the best products from the refining of petroleum. He discovered gasoline and also invented the processes by which many of the products from the crude oil were produced. The remains were sent to Cleveland tonight.

Mr. Andrews was in his 69th year. He was an Englishman by birth, but came to this country in 1857.

DICK AGREES TO ABOLISH FEDERAL OFFICE IN OHIO

WASHINGTON, April 15.—(Special.)—Senator Dick of Ohio has offered a compromise proposition to settle the long drawn out fight with Senator Foraker over the collectorship at Sandusky in the interests of party harmony. It is simply to abolish an office which several secretaries of the treasury have urged was unnecessary. The collector of customs at Sandusky is clearly a fifth wheel. This is supposed to be the first time on record that any man in public life has been willing to have the list of federal offices in his bailiwick decreased by one.

ANDREW CARNEGIE'S LAST GIFT, $5,000,000 IN U. S. STEEL BONDS, INTERNATIONAL IN ITS SCOPE

DRAFT OF PLAN FOR HERO FUND

Donor Outlines His Proposition, Which Is Witnessed by His Wife.

LATITUDE GIVEN COMMISSION

The deed of gift as drawn up by Andrew Carnegie and witnessed by Mrs. Carnegie as a basis for the commission to act upon follows. Mr. Carnegie made few if any changes in the original draft as it is his intention to allow the commission much latitude.

"To the Hero Fund Association.

"Gentlemen: We live in a heroic age. Not seldom are we thrilled by deeds of heroism where men or women are injured or lose their lives in attempting to preserve or rescue their fellows; such the heroes of civilization. The heroes of barbarism maimed or killed theirs.

"I have long felt that the heroes and those dependent upon them should be freed from pecuniary cares resulting from their heroism, and, as a fund for this purpose, I have transferred to the commission $5,000,000 of first collateral 5 per cent bonds of the United States Steel Corporation, the proceeds to be used as follows:

Pecuniary Aid for Heroes.

"First—To place those following peaceful vocations who have been injured in heroic effort to save human life, in somewhat better positions pecuniarily than before, until again able to work. In case of death, the widow and children or other dependents to be provided for until she remarries, and the children until they reach a self-supporting age. For exceptional children, exceptional grants may be made for exceptional education. Grants of sums of money may also be made to heroes or heroines as the commission thinks advisable, each case to be judged on its merits.

"Second—No grant is to be continued unless it be soberly and properly used, and the recipients remain respectable, well-behaved members of the community, but the heroes and heroines are to be given a fair trial, no matter what their antecedents. Heroes deserve pardon and a fresh start.

"Third—A medal shall be given to the hero or widow, or next of kin, which shall recite the heroic deed it commemorates, that descendants may know and be proud of their descent. The medal shall be given for the heroic act, even if the doer be uninjured, and also a sum of money, should the commission deem such gift desirable.

No Conflict With Other Funds.

"Fourth—Many cities provide pensions for policemen, firemen, teachers and others, and some may give rewards for acts of heroism. All these and other facts the commission will take into account and act accordingly in making grants. Nothing could be further from my intention than to deaden or interfere with these most creditable provisions, doubly precious as showing public and municipal appreciation of faithful and heroic service. I ask from the commission most careful guard against this danger. The medal can, of course, be offered in such cases. Whether something more can not judiciously be done, at the request of or with the approval of the city authorities, the commission shall determine. I hope there can be.

"Fifth—The claims upon the fund for some years cannot exhaust it. After years, however, pensioners will become numerous. Should the commission find after allowing liberally for this that a surplus will remain, it has power to make grants in case of accidents, (preferably, where a hero has appeared) to those injured. The action taken in the recent Harwick mine accident, where Heroes Taylor and Lyle lost their lives, is an illustration. The community first raised a fund of $40,000, which was duplicated by me after waiting until the generosity of the community had full scope. Here again the commission should be exceedingly careful as in this case, not to deaden, but to stimulate employers or communities to do their part, for such action benefits givers themselves as well as recipients.

Other Lines of Action.

"Sixth—It seems probable that cities and employers on this continent will ultimately be placed under similar conditions to those of Britain, Germany and other European states, and required to provide against accidents to employes. Therefore, the commission, by a two-thirds vote, may devote any surplus that accrues beyond providing for heroes and their dependents (which provision must never be abandoned) to such other modes of benefiting those in want, chiefly caused through no fault of their own, (such as drunkness, laziness, crime, etc.) but through exceptional circumstances, in such manner and to such extent as the commission thinks advisable and likely to do more good than if such sums were given to those injured by accident, where the latter may be suitably provided for by law, or otherwise.

"Seventh—The field embraced by the fund is Canada and the United States and the waters thereof. The sea is the scene of many heroic acts. No action more heroic than that of doctors and nurses volunteering their services in the case of epidemics. Railroad employes are remarkable for heroism. All these and similar cases are embraced. Whenever heroism is displayed by man or woman in saving human life, the fund applies.

"Eighth—No personal liability will attach to members for any act of the commission. The commission has power to fill vacancies.

"Ninth—The commission has full power

Hero Fund Commission Has Been Organized in Pittsburgh.

BRAVERY REWARDS

Gallant Men and Women of the United States and Canada to Be Benefited.

INCOME OF $250,000 A YEAR

To recognize deeds of heroism and uplift and relieve humanity, Andrew Carnegie has created a fund of $5,000,000. The endowment is to be known as "The Hero Fund" and is his first gift of an international character, as it will apply to all Anglo-Saxon North America. To administer the fund a commission of 21 jurists, financiers and men of letters of Pittsburgh has been named by Mr. Carnegie, and it was through this body, which yesterday formally accepted the gift, that the first definite announcement of the philanthropic scheme was made known.

The Pittsburgh Gazette on the morning of March 19 exclusively announced that Mr. Carnegie had given $5,000,000 for a project that would be international in its scope, but was unable to give the details owing to the absence from the city of Charles L. Taylor, the president of the fund commission.

Details Yet to Be Worked Out.

In a "deed of gift" drafted some months ago by Mr. Carnegie, the objects which the endowment will cover have been made known to the commission, although as yet the details have not been worked out. In scope it is declared to be the greatest individual donation for philanthropic purposes the world has ever known.

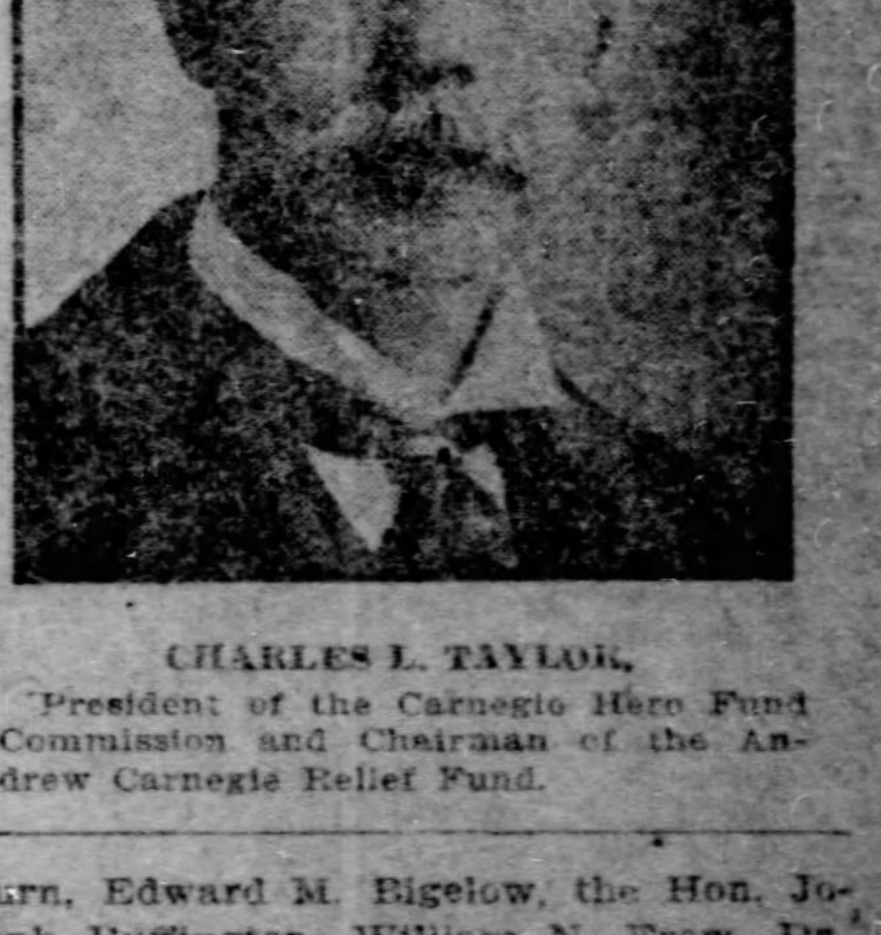
Many members of the commission were ignorant of the nature of the gift until they met yesterday afternoon in the board room of the Carnegie Steel Company, Carnegie building at the call of Mr. Taylor, chairman of the Andrew Carnegie relief fund, whom the ironmaster has named as president of the commission. The magnitude of the endowment overshadowed any routine discussion and further than to appoint committees on permanent organization and resolutions, the commission did nothing.

Millions Ready to Be Transferred.

Today President Taylor will notify R. A. Franks, secretary of Mr. Carnegie, of the organization of the commission, and $5,000,000 worth of first collateral 5 per cent bonds of the United States Steel Corporation will be immediately registered to the credit of the "Hero Fund Commission" and the certificates forwarded. The gift is so endowed.

It is the intention of Mr. Carnegie to make the endowment cotemporary rather than retroactive, although heroic deeds performed within the past year will receive the attention and perhaps reward of the commission. Only the income from the fund, $250,000 per year, will be used.

The commission is composed of the following men: Charles L. Taylor, president; F. M. Wilmot, secretary; W. L. Abbott, Edwin H. Anderson, W. W. Blackburn, Edward M. Bigelow, the Hon. Joseph Buffington, William N. Frew, Dr. W. J. Holland, John B. Jackson, Thomas Lynch, Charles C. Mellor, T. N. Miller, Thomas Morrison, Frederick C. Perkins, Robert Pitcairn, the Hon. H. Kirke Porter, James H. Reed, W. L. Scaife, William Scott and W. H. Stevenson.



CHARLES L. TAYLOR,
President of the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission and Chairman of the Andrew Carnegie Relief Fund.

Committees Promptly Appointed.

The committees appointed yesterday are as follows: Permanent organization, Thomas Lynch, chairman; J. H. Reed, Joseph Buffington, F. M. Wilmot and C. L. Taylor; resolutions, W. J. Holland, chairman; Robert Pitcairn, William Scott, E. M. Bigelow, C. L. Taylor.

The commission will meet shortly at the call of the chair. The resolution committee will likely be able to report within a week. Its duty is to frame a resolution of acceptance and thanks to Mr. Carnegie, which will be forwarded to Skibo as soon as possible.

After the meeting President Taylor issued this statement:

"Andrew Carnegie has created another fund for the uplifting and relief of humanity and endowed it with $5,000,000. This time his beneficence takes the form of providing for the dependents of those losing their lives in heroic effort to save their fellow-men, or for the heroes themselves, if injured only. Medals also are to be given in commemoration of the heroic act.

Immediately after the Harwick mine disaster, in which 178 men and boys lost

New York Mr. Charles L. Taylor, chairman, and F. M. Wilmot, manager, Andrew Carnegie Relief Fund (for the relief of employes and their families of the Carnegie Steel Company and its constituent companies) of Pittsburgh, to discuss with him plans for the relief of the sufferers from this catastrophe. The result of this conference has been announced to the public. On this occasion Mr. Carnegie announced to Messrs Taylor and Wilmot his intention to endow a fund for heroes, outlined his plans and asked that they consider the project carefully and write him regarding it, making such suggestions and giving such ideas as might occur to them. This he did, and on March 12, 1904, just before his departure for Europe, Mr. Carnegie forwarded a letter to Mr. Taylor, together with a memorandum outlining the scope of his new philanthropic scheme, and a list containing the names of those chosen by him as trustees. His letter follows:

New York, March 12, 1904.

Charles L. Taylor, Esq., Carnegie Building, Pittsburgh, Pa.:

Dear Mr. Taylor—Enclosed find memo. of trust proposed. Mr. R. A. Franks has orders to send you the bonds when you have formed the commission and are ready to act as president, with Mr. F. M. Wilmot as secretary. He will have the bonds registered in the name of "The Hero Fund" and send you certificate, upon which you can draw the interest regularly.

I enclose a list of persons for the commission, 21 in number, being chiefly those whom we talked over. Very truly yours,

ANDREW CARNEGIE.

Where He Made His Money.

In endowing the Hero fund, Mr. Carnegie selected Pittsburgh as the repository and headquarters, for the reason, as he recently explained, "He made all of his money there."

In naming only Pittsburghers as members of the commission, he was actuated by the same motive. In the list of names several Carnegie Institute trustees appear, notably those of W. N. Frew, Dr. Holland and Congressman H. K. Porter. C. L. Taylor and F. M. Wilmot have been honored on account of their connection with the Carnegie Relief Fund of the Carnegie Company, which was in 1902 endowed with $4,000,000. Ex-Judge Reed and William Scott appear owing to their legal affiliations with the laird. Thomas Morrison is a relative and retired Carnegie official. E. M. Bigelow was named, like W. H. Stevenson, through personal esteem. The other members appear chiefly on account of their connection with the Carnegie interests and personal friendship.

Every member attended the initial meeting with the exception of two.

INCIDENTS THAT LED TO CREATION OF FUND

Laird of Skibo Believes That Many Deserving Heroes Go Unrewarded.

In naming the commission and framing his "deed" Mr. Carnegie consulted few people. Mrs. Carnegie is said to have played an important part in the wording of the deed, while another Pittsburgh woman was honored by being taken into the secret. It is said that only the bosom friends of Mr. Carnegie knew of the intended gift, although on the morning of March 19 The Gazette made the exclusive announcement that Mr. Carnegie would give $5,000,000 to this city, exclusive of the Institute and Technical schools.

For nearly two years Mr. Carnegie has been turning the vast scheme over in his mind. From one of his most intimate colleagues it is learned that his first spoken word as to a gift for "heroes" was given a little over a year ago. It was after he had made an address of presentation to a boy who had saved the life of a man in Long Island sound. A medal was presented by the life-saving station and the ironmaster was asked to make the presentation. So impressed was he that many deeds of bravery go unrewarded that he remarked on the fact.

Opposed to Homeric Heroes.

A short time after that he was called upon to deliver an address at the Stevens Polytechnic institute, Hoboken, N. J., on the occasion of the induction into office of a new president. It was in this address that he sounded the keynote of his beliefs, which he has embodied in his articles endowing the Hero Fund. He declared against Homeric heroes, and was taken to task by several publications. Following this, over a year afterward, came the Harwick mine disaster in January, 1904. The suffering endured by many families as a result of this horror is said to have finally inspired the present gift.

Calling into his confidence for the second time in regard to the same matter Mr. Carnegie laid the plan before Mr. Taylor. He also discussed the gift with several other Pittsburghers. He is said to have been first and always for Pittsburgh, having declared a few days before sailing:

"May my right hand lose its cunning and my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth if I forget Pittsburgh."

Unity of Anglo-Saxon Races.

Mr. Carnegie accordingly made this place the location of the fund. He then discussed, at some length, the area which would be included by the fund, and again his well-molded opinion as to the ultimate unity of the Anglo-Saxon peoples caused him to include Canada and "the waters thereof" as entitled to the rewards of the fund. Apart from sentiment, the Carnegie interests are deeply rooted in Canadian soil, particularly in mining, and this is said to have had its influence. At Skibo castle, the star-spangled Scotchman, in proof of his brotherhood of the Celts, flies from his flagstaff a flag, one side of which is American and the other British. In including Canada he is reported to have said:

"I have always believed in the unity of the races and want the fund to apply to all Anglo-Saxon North America."

In determining the merits of heroism the commission will be largely guided by the expressed and somewhat rock-ribbed opinions of Mr. Carnegie on the subject. One of those who were taken into the conference leading up to the gift said last night:

Regards War as Unnecessary.

"Mr. Carnegie regards war as often unnecessary, if not pernicious. His rewards of money and medals for heroic deeds will apply only for those following peaceful vocations, and while he recognizes the worth of the army and navy, they will be restricted from participation. His idea of a hero is not vague, by any means. There are two kinds of heroes commonly accepted. Those that perform acts of a peaceful nature; those of a Homeric nature, as Mr. Carnegie styles many men of valor who have their deeds sung by poets. War comes under the latter caption. The commission would, indeed, have a trying task if it were not for the opinions of Mr. Carnegie. Many cases of bravery, which on their face appear full of heroism, wholly lack the element. In matters of this kind the commission will have to go into the elemental makeup, ever regarding Mr. Carnegie's warning to look for patience, courage and risk. These will be the determining factors.

"With his instructions, as given in the 'deed,' the committee will frame its by-laws and governing rules, but it is plain to see that the question is a broad one. He was emphatic in speaking of rewards for public servants, such as policemen, firemen and school teachers, but the details of such expenditures will be left with the commission."

PITTSBURGHERS BUY A SOUTHERN RAILROAD

Continental Trust Company Forms Part of Purchasing Syndicate.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 15.—At a meeting in this city today control of the Norfolk & Southern railroad was sold to a syndicate composed of Flint, Bacon & Co., and the Continental Trust Company of Pittsburgh. This syndicate owns the Chesapeake Transit Company and it was in the interest of this corporation that the Norfolk & Southern was purchased.

The Norfolk & Southern has been owned for several years by men identified with the New York Central system. John Carstensen, fourth vice president of the Central was president of the company and the directorate included A. V. W. Rossiter, Chauncey M. Depew and Charles F. Cox.

At a meeting of the directors today Mr. Depew, Mr. Cox, Mr. Rossiter and George R. Turnbull, vice president of the Guarantee Trust Company, resigned, and were succeeded by A. H. Flint, Henry Sproul, J. C. Chapman, president of the Continental Trust Company of Pittsburgh, and Mr. Bacon of Flint, Bacon & Co. Mr. Carstensen resigned as president, but will remain on the directorate, and was succeeded by Mr. Flint. Alfred Skitt resigned at vice president and was succeeded by Mr. Sproul, but will continue as a director of the company. Mr. Chapman was chosen treasurer of the company and William S. Langford as secretary and assistant treasurer.

The new interests in the property are understood to have acquired a little more than 15,000 shares of the outstanding 20,000 shares, at about par. The Chesapeake & Ohio Transit Company consists of an electric system in Virginia, connecting Norfolk, Cape Henry and Virginia Beach. Its president is J. E. Cole.

MEDALS OF GOLD WILL MEAN MUCH

They Will Rank With the Most Rare Decorations Bestowed by Rulers of Nations.

TALKS WITH COMMISSIONERS

When the creation of the Hero fund and its purposes became talked of late yesterday afternoon, the expressions on all sides were in keeping with the magnitude of the gift. Few people seemed to realize the scope of the scheme. The members of the commission are a unit as to the acceptance of the endowment, and declare that in years to come the Carnegie Hero fund medals will take rank with the most sought after decorations of the old world's courts.

In providing for the striking of medals Mr. Carnegie has set a long-coming precedent, and certainly a custom that will become world-renowned. The only thing of the kind that now approaches Mr. Carnegie's idea of awarding of medals for heroic deeds is that of the Massachusetts Humane society.

With unlimited capital and an international field, the Hero fund will be enabled to recognize merit on a much broader scale than even the government. All of the members of the commission declare that the medals will mean more than any similar institution the world over. None of the European countries, with their various decorations of orders, legions, etc., has anything that will compare with the Carnegie medals.

Dr. Holland's Warm Tribute.

Dr. W. J. Holland, a member of the commission, said:

"The more I reflect upon the nature of the last gift which Mr. Carnegie has made to the people of the United States and Canada, the more I am impressed with his wisdom in giving to this portion of his estate the educative function with which he has endowed it. Nobody but a man of Mr. Carnegie's imaginative—indeed, poetic—faculties and rare grace and power in giving, could have either devised or executed a plan like this. When some time ago he first spoke of the matter to me, and honored me by allowing me to read over the deed of gift, I was, as I imagine many others will be, somewhat startled by the novelty of the proposition, while instantly recognizing the nobility of the aim he had in view and of the motive actuating him in making the gift. The practical difficulties to be encountered in wisely administering the trust also appeared to me at first glance to be enormous, and this impression has not been effaced by reflection. Nevertheless, we have in Mr. Taylor and Mr. Wilmot men of rare genius for such a task as the deed of trust imposes upon them, and all difficulties will be ultimately surmounted.

"As week after week I have been revolving the matter in my mind, I have grown more and more to feel that this fund will prove to be a highly stimulative force in the life of the people of this country. Its employment on the lines suggested by Mr. Carnegie will tend to nurture certain of the choicest traits of our community. There is nothing nobler than the spirit of self-sacrifice. It is the quintessence of love. Coupled with courage and patience, it makes the true hero. The Hero fund, with its medals rewarding heroic acts in the paths of peace, and its benefactions ministering help to those who suffer, because, forsooth for another some brave human being 'has dared to die,' will for generations teach and preach holy lessons to the people."

Uplifting and Inspiring Effect.

William N. Frew, another member of the fund commission, said last night:

"It is certainly a most beautiful conception on the part of Mr. Carnegie. The judicious distribution of the income arising from this great fund will have an uplifting and inspiring effect hardly to be overestimated. To my knowledge no such splendid and at the same time common sense reward has ever before been offered for the exhibition of true valor and self-sacrifice. It should be flattering to Pittsburghers that Mr. Carnegie has come to the city in which the larger part of his life has been spent to find administrators for this great endowment, which affects not only the entire United States, but Canada also.

"Combining the results sure to follow a wise administration of this trust with those already flowing from the almost numberless libraries and institutions of learning which he has scattered all over the land, it requires no severe stretch of the imagination to realize that in but a few years this one man, single handed and by careful distribution of his wealth, will have materially changed for the better the quality of our citizenship."

Greatest the World Has Known.

"I know very little more of the gift than what is contained in Mr. Carnegie's instructions," said President Taylor last night at his home. "It is without question the greatest thing the world has ever known.

"Last fall Mr. Carnegie called me to New York to talk over the endowment, but I had no idea of the enormity of the thing at that time. Then came the Harwick disaster, and again I was called to New York. The final arrangements of the Hero Fund were then gone into. Upon my return from California recently I found everything in readiness to proceed, and accordingly issued a call to the gentlemen whom Mr. Carnegie selected as members of the committee. There were many of them who did not know the meaning of the call until confronted with the letter from Mr. Carnegie. The acceptance of the gift at the meeting this afternoon was a most solemn and formal thing.

"As far as I know Mr. Carnegie thought of the name 'Hero Fund.' No one except Mrs. Carnegie would have been consulted about this. I shall immediately notify Mr. Frank of the organization of the commission and get the certificate of the bonds. It will be some time before the commission is in working order."

DON M. DICKENSON FLAYS JUDGE PARKER'S CANDIDACY

Former Postmaster General Has Several Suggestions for the Democratic Presidential Nominee—Reviews Hill's Treachery to Party in 1888.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

DETROIT, MICH., April 15.—Don M. Dickinson, postmaster general under Cleveland, and who has been supposed to be high in the councils of the "reorganization," is opposed to Judge Alton B. Parker as the Democratic nominee for the presidency.

"In 1888," said Mr. Dickinson, "when Mr. Cleveland was a candidate for the presidency, Hill was running for governor of New York. It was his plan to make himself the presidential nominee of the Democratic party four years later by showing that he could carry New York, that no other Democrat could carry that state, and that the party could not win without New York.

"Parker was known then as a man intimate with Hill. He received his judicial position through Hill. Parker conducted the Hill campaign. In that election David B. Hill was elected governor of New York by a good majority. Grover Cleveland was defeated in New York, and with the loss of that state the Democratic party lost the presidential election.

"I do not favor William Randolph Hearst. Why should the Democratic party be confined to those two men in its choice? What is there against Gen. Nelson A. Miles? In the last cabinet of President Cleveland was Judson Harmon of Ohio, who is another man of proved ability and worth. Gov. Francis of Missouri is able and strong. Anyone of these would make a strong candidate of the party and I should be proud to vote for any one of them."

MURDER BY REQUEST.

Mississippi Man Declares That He Shot Sweetheart at Her Own Desire.

JACKSON, MISS., April 15.—In the presence of a number of witnesses Ed Gallons, who murdered Lake Kinsey and his daughter, Fannie Kinsey, at Water Valley, has made a confession. His statement regarding the death of the young woman with whom he was in love is sensational.

He says that after he killed her father in the field, he went to the house where the girl was and told her of his deed. At first the two planned to run away and be married, but the girl changed her mind and asked him to kill her, which he says he refused at first to do. Then she tried to get the pistol away from him. He then told her to step off a few paces and turn her back, which she did. He then shot and killed her.

Secrecy of Japanese Naval Officers Likely to Cause Change in United States.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—(Special.)—There is a good deal of quiet criticism in army and navy circles over the extreme secrecy of the Japanese government in the present war. This applies especially to the navy. The operations of Admiral Togo are of intense interest, professionally, and knowledge of them would be of great value to our navy, yet Japan firmly declines to permit any American naval observers to go with her fleets or to get near enough to them to see what is going on.

It is said to be not improbable that many privileges which have heretofore been accorded Japanese naval officers here may be withdrawn as a result of Japan's present course. Whenever a vessel is launched, or a speed test takes place, or any trial of guns is conducted under the auspices of the American navy, there is quite certain to be some investigating Japanese in the vicinity. To the oriental observers the American government has afforded every facility which it consistently could.

Japanese officers have been trained in the American naval academy at Annapolis, where they have been given full benefit of the naval education provided for American officers. Many of Japan's best and most trained officers received their training in this country. This may all be changed in the future.

FOR BOYS' BRIGADE.

Men Who Will Direct State Regiments Chosen at Harrisburg.

HARRISBURG, April 15.—The state convention of the Boys' Brigade of Pennsylvania convened here today and will continue in session two days. After an address of welcome by City Treasurer William H. Middleton, a business meeting was held, the officers and delegates holding separate conventions. The annual exhibition and contests were held this evening.

The following officers were elected at today's session: Division commander, Henry F. Spicer, Philadelphia; chaplain, the Rev. Henry A. Bomberger, Philadelphia; adjutant general, George A. Gow, Philadelphia; judge advocate general, W. A. Turnbach, Hazleton; quartermaster general, O. P. Lambert, Philadelphia; president, H. F. Spicer; vice presidents, H. P. Bope of Pittsburgh, the Rev. J. Henry Stiles, and Frank J. Wallis.

PENSION ORDER EXPLAINED.

Erroneous Idea Prevalent About the New Arrangements.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—To make clear the actual effect of privisions of the recent age pension order of Commissioner Ware, about which a large number of inquiries are being made, the following official statement was made today:

There appears to be an impression among many of the old soldiers that allowances of pension under the "age order" of the commissioner of pensions are in addition to pensions allowed heretofore.

This is an erroneous idea of said order. The law prohibits the payment of more than one pension to a person for the same period, and the effect of the order, on those having a pension already, only will be to increase such pension up to the age limit if the pension already drawn is below that amount.

Beaver Valley Scale Conference.

BEAVER FALLS, PA., April 15.—The miners and operators of the Beaver valley sub-district held a scale conference tonight. The miners are willing to return to work at 3½ cents, but the operators insist that the Indianapolis scale, a slight reduction, prevail.

BIG SHELLS POUR INTO PORT ARTHUR

ticipated by the unofficial report yesterday.

The fate of Nicholas Kravtchenko, the well-known Russian literary man who was acting as correspondent of the Associated Press at Port Arthur, is still unknown. It is possible that he left Port Arthur prior to the disaster of Wednesday.

It appears from the official dispatches today that Capt. Jakovleff was not killed as reported yesterday. He is still alive but his condition is critical. He is wounded in the head and several ribs are broken.

Wild rumors were spread abroad today that the Grand Duke Cyril, cousin of the czar, was dead. This was authoritatively denied tonight by Prince Galitzin, who declared that the grand duke is better and that he is now with his brother, Grand Duke Boris, at the headquarters at Liao-Yang.

The latest report of the casualties on the Petropavlovsk state that 28 officers were lost, including Capt. Vasilief, belonging to the ship; Vice Admiral Makaroff; 14 members of his staff, including Rear Admiral Molas, the chief-of-staff, and Lieut. Von Kobe, the aide-de-camp of Grand Duke Cyril.

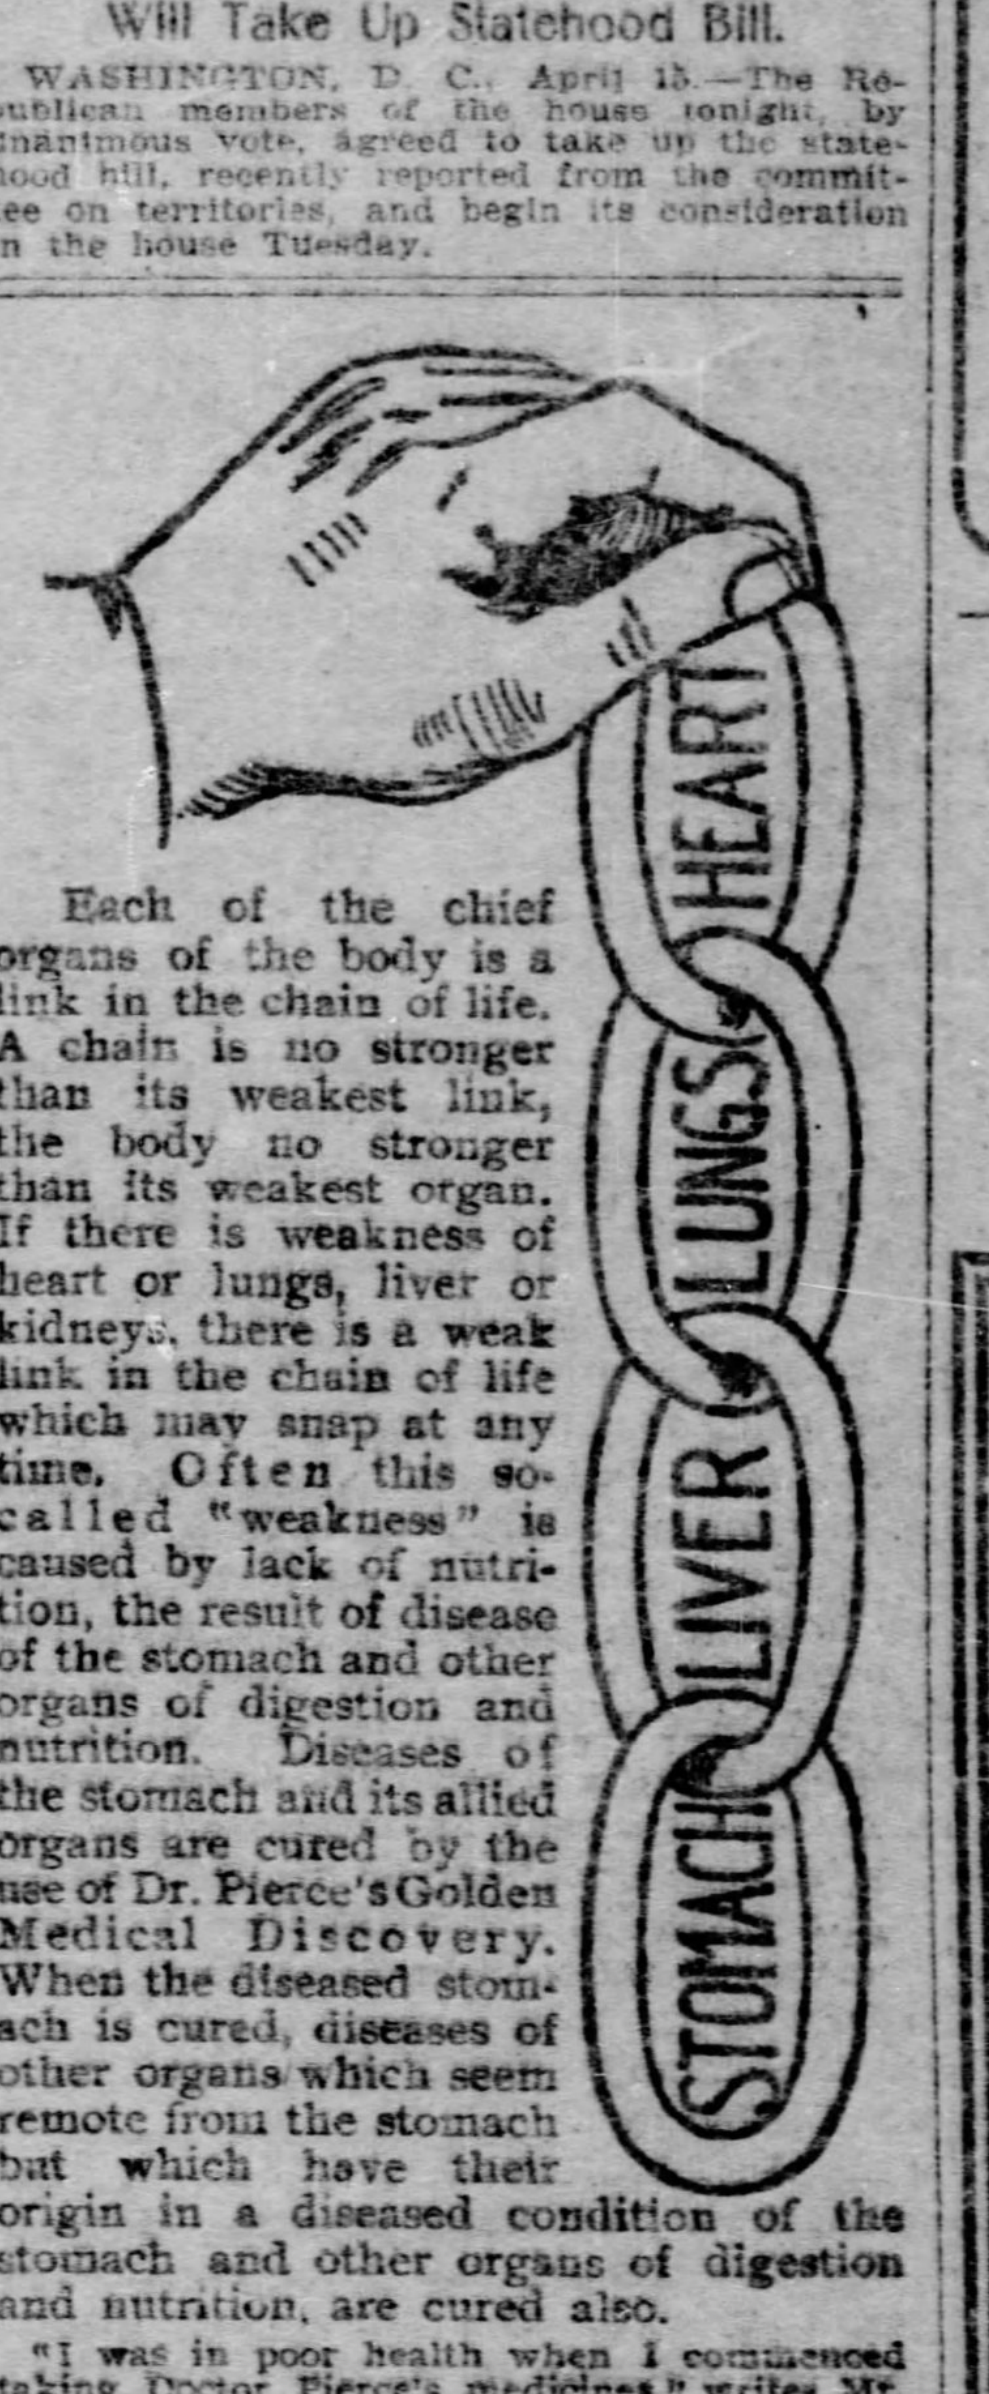
Viceroy Alexieff, who was at Mukden when the disaster occurred, proceeded promptly to Port Arthur to personally assume temporary command of the naval forces there, and reached his destination last night. His presence is expected to put an end to the demoralization there.

A requiem service was held today on board the ice breaker Ermak for the repose of the souls of Vice Admiral Makaroff and Capt. Vasilieff, formerly commander of the Ermak, who also perished in the disaster to the Petropavlovsk. Several hundred persons were present.

The naval staff has no information confirming last night's rumor that the Japanese have succeeded in blocking the entrance of the harbor of Port Arthur.

Will Take Up Statehood Bill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15.—The Republican members of the house tonight, by unanimous vote, agreed to take up the statehood bill, recently reported from the committee on territories, and begin its consideration in the house Tuesday.



Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the chain of life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of heart or lungs, liver or kidneys, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.
"I was in poor health when I commenced taking Doctor Pierce's medicines," writes Mr. Elmer Lawler, of Volga, Jefferson Co., Ind. "I had stomach, kidney, heart, and lung troubles. Was not able to do any work. I had a severe cough and hemorrhage of the lungs, but after using your medicine a while I commenced to gain in strength and flesh and stopped coughing right away. Took about six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I feel like a different person. I gladly recommend your medicine to all sufferers, for I know it cured me."
The use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets will cure that foul breath.

HOLD NO CAUCUS BEFORE SESSION

Democratic County Convention Will Not Nominate County Officers.

STATE DELEGATES WILL MEET

The Democratic leaders said yesterday that no caucus of the county convention delegates will be held previous to the convention to be held in City hall today. City Chairman James A. Clark said that last year there was the question of fusion with the Citizens, but as this year is to be a straight Democratic year there is no need of a caucus.

At its meeting today the convention will elect a chairman, who will be the incumbent, Thomas B. Alcorn. No county officers will be nominated. It is Alcorn's opinion that the convention will appoint a committee, which will have power to fuse with other parties or to name the Democratic candidates. No nominations will be made until after the Democratic national convention has been held.

W. T. Creasy, ex-state chairman of the Democratic party, yesterday denied that he intends to make trouble for Col. James M. Guffey in the state convention. Creasy said over the long-distance telephone that he was not displeased because he is not one of the delegates-at-large to the Democratic national convention. Regarding Col. Guffey, he said he considered him a true and unselfish Democrat, actuated by the highest motives and working at all times for the good of the party.

The county officers elected by the Citizens party, Robert J. Cunningham and J. D. O'Neil, will have a talk today with Thomas S. Bigelow, presumably to discuss the advisability of trying to secure the Republican nomination for the same offices next year. They say they will support the Republican ticket next fall and will therefore be entitled to go into the Republican primaries next year.

The Allegheny county delegates to the Democratic state convention will hold a caucus at 2 p. m. at the Monongahela house. The 17 delegates will select their alternates, nominate the eight delegates the county is entitled to send to the Democratic national convention, and choose the national alternates. Thomas B. Alcorn will be chairman of the caucus and either John A. Bleichner or Daniel F. Crawford will be elected permanent chairman of the delegation. The delegation may also adopt a resolution favoring the unit rule at the national convention.

James F. Burke has returned from a visit to Philadelphia. He said yesterday that Philadelphia Republicans were talking about booming ex-Speaker Henry F. Walton of Philadelphia for the Republican nomination for governor. Burke is one of the guests invited to the dinner of the Five O'clock club of Philadelphia today, when it is expected Walton's boom will be cut loose.

George H. Calvert, one of the attorneys for Mayor Hays in the latter's contest with the Allegheny county prison board, was notified yesterday that the supreme court will hear on May 9 in Philadelphia the argument in the appeal of the mandamus which the mayor secured, compelling the prison board to admit him to membership.

OPENING OF CITY BIDS HAS BEEN DELAYED

Over $400,000 of Contracts for Improvements to Be Let Next Week.

The absence from the city of Director E. M. Bigelow and Mayor William B. Hays has prevented the opening of bids on city improvements, including street and bridge repairs, amounting to $404,000. The bids advertised for were to have been opened on Thursday, but the opening has been delayed until next week. The bidding for the city work this year is lively.

The city has $225,000 to spend on street repairs alone. The usual number of bids has been increased by a liberal appropriation and by the additional specifications requiring double bids for the downtown streets.

The downtown streets are to be paved with granite, providing the expense is not too great, and samples from the quarries in New England, the Carolinas and elsewhere have been received from bidders by the bureau of construction. One of the new jobs for which $65,000 has been appropriated, is an extension of the Negley run sewer, which now empties into the Allegheny river near the Brilliant pumping station.

The outlet is above the government dam being built. To prevent the pollution of the city's water supply it is proposed to extend the sewer to a point below the dam. Other improvements included in the $404,000 are two approaches to the new South Tenth street bridge and $50,000 worth of repairs to the Point bridge.

SMOKE RESOLUTION PASSED ILLEGALLY

Mayor Hays Will Allow It to Become Law Without His Signature.

Mayor William B. Hays, who departed Thursday night for North Carolina, left the Pittsburgh Junction smoke resolution unsigned, and it will become a law next week without his signature. The resolution was passed last Monday by councils and if not signed or vetoed in 10 days after its passage becomes a law without the signature of the city executive.

The passage of the resolution by common council Monday night is said to have been illegal because it was not read and the body was not acquainted with the contents of the bill when it was voted on. William Brand sought to have it considered, but was overruled by President R. B. Ward, and the majority of the members sustained the chair. The rules of the council require every bill to be read in full at least once. After the meeting Monday night President Ward admitted that the resolution had not been read.

NEW HOSPITAL TO BE BUILT

Hebrew Ladies' Aid Society to Conduct Non-Sectarian Institution.

A Jewish hospital is to be built opposite the Passavant hospital at Miller and Reed streets. It is to be called the Pittsburgh Jewish hospital, and will be under the administration of the Hebrew Ladies' Aid Society, but will be non-sectarian. The site was purchased two years ago for $10,000 and work on the building will be started in a short time. The building is to cost about $75,000.

For the building fund $10,000 in cash and $15,000 by subscription have been raised. A maintenance fund of $10,000 is also provided by subscription. There are 25 directors of the institution, who have elected the following officers: President, Mrs. B. Davis; vice president, Mrs. F. Abels; secretary, Mrs. M. Goodstone; treasurer, Mrs. M. Rosenthal. Henry Jackson is chairman of the board of directors. The hospital will be a four-story brick building.

TWO SCHOLARSHIPS OFFERED TO ALLEGHENY STUDENTS

The offer of a $120 scholarship for a four-year course, which has been made during each of the past two years by the Western Reserve university of Cleveland, O., to two young men from Allegheny county, is again made. The scholarships are granted on a basis of the ability and general merit of the candidates as indicated by high school diplomas and letters from teachers and principals. The term begins in September and all applications must be made before June 1 to the president of the university.

J. LINWOOD BROWN WILL LEAVE OFFICE ON JUNE 1

Superintendent of Allegheny Water Bureau Has Sent His Resignation to Mayor Wyman and It Has Been Accepted.

Supt. J. Linwood Brown of the Allegheny bureau of water has sent his resignation to Mayor James G. Wyman. Mr. Brown will give up his office on June 1, the 11th anniversary of his appointment to the position.

The resignation of Supt. Brown was a surprise to the mayor and at a conference between the two on Thursday the latter tried to persuade Brown to reconsider, but the latter refused and explained his plans for the future. The mayor finally agreed to accept the resignation, after assuring Supt. Brown that his going would be regretted by everyone about city hall.

Director E. J. McIlvain of the public works department had a talk with Brown yesterday. His going cannot be charged to politics. When Wyman was elected mayor, more than a year ago, Brown was retained in his present position. He was never a politician, but is known throughout the country as an expert civil and mechanical engineer. He was chief engineer of the Pittsburgh & Western railroad prior to the time he was appointed superintendent of the water bureau.

For almost 20 years he had been building railroads. He was for some years engaged by various roads in constructing lines in Mexico, South America and across the isthmus of Panama. Mr. Brown was one of the first American engineers to build a railroad in Russia. Mr. Brown said last night:

"Yes, it is true I am going to quit, but at present I cannot say in what business I shall engage. No; I am not going back to railroading. My relations with everyone in the city's service have been most pleasant and I leave behind me no enemies. I shall be able to tell you in a few days what my plans are for the future."

Supt. Brown went to Buffalo last night to inspect the two powerful pumping engines that have just been completed for the city by the Snow Steam Pump Company at a cost of $237,000. The foundations for the engines have been completed at Montrose and the work of setting up the engines will commence on May 1. Each has a capacity of 15,000,000 gallons daily.

P. R. R. BUYS CRUCIBLE'S HOWE-BROWN PROPERTY

An Old Deal to Get More Yard Room for Allegheny Valley is Reported Closed.

The sale of the Howe-Brown property of the Crucible Steel Company of America, to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, is reported concluded, and the price realized for the property makes a handsome addition to the Crucible's treasury. This sale, if closed, has been brought to its completion in the east. Both President Frank B. Smith and Chairman W. G. Park of the Crucible board are in the east, and it is supposed that their presence there bears on this deal. This explains the strength of the stock on the exchange.

The Howe-Brown plant of the company is located at Seventeenth street and the Allegheny Valley railroad. The plant is an extensive one and its site is needed badly by the Allegheny Valley for additional sidings and yards.

The sale has been under discussion for about three years. At various times it has been brought near to a conclusion, but the price demanded has operated each time as a block to the deal. The amount which has finally been agreed upon is also unknown as yet, but it amounts to several hundred thousand dollars.

MOLDS AND COINS FOUND.

Detective Claims He Got Counterfeiting Evidence at McGill's Home.

John S. Wasser, of the United States secret service, stated yesterday he had found two molds and a double handful of bogus coins in a vault at the house of Dr. Clarence McGill, the Avalon dentist arrested Thursday on the charge of counterfeiting. McGill was in the office of the United States marshal all day yesterday waiting for bail which was not secured. He was later locked up at the county jail.

Mrs. McGill made charges against Wasser yesterday. McGill's attorney, R. H. Jackson, brought the matter to the attention of Assistant United States District Attorney R. M. Gibson, who said he believed the charges were untrue, but they would be investigated. The charges are denied by Wasser. Attorney Jackson said McGill seemed to be completely under Wasser's influence, and hinted at hypnotism.

POLICE WILL VOTE.

O'Mara's Claim to Be Passed Upon by Members of the Protective Association.

The officers of the Police and Detective Protective association yesterday decided that the members should pass upon the damage claim of $2,000 made by former Superintendent of Detectives Roger O'Mara by vote. A special meeting of the policemen and detectives will be called Monday.

The claim made by O'Mara grew out of an arrest by two of his officers several years ago. The police and detective association was organized after O'Mara and his officers had been sued and a verdict for $2,600 was rendered against them. The police maintain, as their organization was not in existence at the time, they are not responsible for O'Mara's claim. The officers of the association are all friendly to O'Mara and have already advanced him $600 on his claim.

ISSUED CONVENTION CALL.

Leather Workers Will Hold Annual Meeting in St. Louis, June 14.

Circulars have been issued calling the fifth annual convention of the International United Brotherhood of Leather Workers on Horse Goods, June 14 at St. Louis. Each local having 100 members is entitled to one delegate, and another for every additional 100, up to five delegates.

The international executive committee held a conference with the National Saddlers Manufacturers' association to arrange for the expiration of scales. A proposition was submitted to the members for a referendum vote, but it was defeated. The proposition divided the country into four districts, the scales expiring at a different period in each district. The members want all scales to expire at the same time.

BIG INTEREST PAID OFF.

Warrant for $100,000—City Retires $625,000 of Bonds Soon.

Assistant Controller E. S. Morrow paid off yesterday $100,000 interest on the city loan of 1895. The warrant was drawn to the credit of the Pittsburgh Trust Company, which distributes the money among the bondholders. Of the $100,000 the city will get $10,000 of it back, as the sinking fund holds some of the securities.

The bond issue of 1895 matures serially every three years and on May 1 the city will retire $625,000 of the loan. A call has been advertised for the bonds that will mature the first of next month. The redemption of these bonds will give the city $625,000 additional margin for an increase in the bonded debt, which may be enlarged about $14,000,000 by a vote of the people.

BETTER WEATHER IS PRAYER OF THE WABASH

President Ramsey Finds Excellent Progress Except Where Weather Interfered.

Joseph Ramsey, Jr., president of the Wabash, arrived in Pittsburgh yesterday for a stay of two or three days to find excellent progress being made in everything except what the weather retards. All is ready for the starting of some new projects as soon as the weather permits.

President J. W. Patterson of the Pittsburgh, Carnegie & Western; President J. T. Blair of the Buckhannon & Northern and the Little Kanawha, the West Virginia lines; Secretary E. D. Fulton of the Greene County railroad; General Counsel A. M. Neeper of the Wabash's Pittsburgh interests, and a number of others met Mr. Ramsey to round up the many matters which awaited his decision.

It was reported that fully 35 miles of the new track are down and that as fast as the bridges can be built ahead of the tracklaying machine the roadbed is being pushed farther toward the connection with the Wheeling & Lake Erie. On the bridge work the American Bridge Company is now making as rapid progress as can be expected.

"In our local matters we are all right," said Mr. Ramsey. "The situation on Duquesne way does not present any insuperable difficulties. The West Virginia, Maryland and Greene county work should proceed rapidly as soon as the weather becomes good."

DISCUSSED THE ART IN MILLINERY AND DRESS

Miss Harriet Sackett Delivers One of the Lectures of Carnegie School.

Another series of lectures being produced by the Carnegie Technical schools under the direction of Arthur A. Hamerschlag was given last night by Miss Harriet Sackett, professor of domestic art and director of the department in the Pratt schools, Brooklyn. Miss Sackett had a large audience. Unfortunately she had not learned her lecture by heart, but despite the drawback caused by reading and the turning of pages her delivery was good.

The subject of the lecture was "Art in the Household." Miss Sackett told of the Pratt institute training school for girls in millinery and dressmaking. There are classes for girls who do not mean to make an avocation of either trade and classes for intended professionals. Dress designing is taught, and Miss Pratt said many of the girls were apt at drawing.

Samples of work done by the professional pupils in their first and second years of tuition were shown. Emphasis was laid on the need of artistic ideas in the designing of woman's dress, and to prove it the lecturer showed stereopticon pictures of costumes from the old Roman period up to last October.

BACH ON BOTH PROGRAMS.

Organist Lemare Will Lecture on Him and Organist Koch Will Render a Composition.

The second lecture this season in connection with the organ recitals by Edwin H. Lemare will be given this evening in Carnegie Music hall at 8:15 o'clock, and the usual Sunday afternoon organ recital will be given at 4 o'clock.

A series of six lectures has been prepared by Mr. Lemare—two on Bach, two on Mendelssohn and two on Chopin—to be given on consecutive Saturday evenings. The first lecture was given last Saturday evening, the subject being Bach, and this evening the lecture continues the same subject, the period being 1717-1750. These lecture-recitals will occupy about an hour and fifteen minutes and the public generally is invited. Mr. Lemare's program to illustrate this evening's lecture is as follows:

Pianoforte Illustrations.
Prelude and Fugue No. 3, from "The Well-Tempered Clavier." Part 1.
Organ Illustrations.
Fugue a la Gigue.
Pastoral Symphony, from the Christmas Oratorio.

The six hundred and twenty-sixth organ recital at Allegheny Carnegie Music hall will be given this afternoon by Caspar P. Koch. The program ranges from Bach's gigantic "St. Anne's" fugue to Guilmant's "Cantilene Pastorale." The soloists will be Miss Harriette Slattery, soprano, and Master Ernst Becker, violinist. The program:

Civil Service Method Changed.

The adoption of the government's new civil service commission does away with the local examining board. The entire country has been redistricted and each district is to have a secretary. J. J. Vogel of Philadelphia is secretary of this district. He was in Pittsburgh yesterday arranging to transfer all records of the local board to his headquarters in Philadelphia.

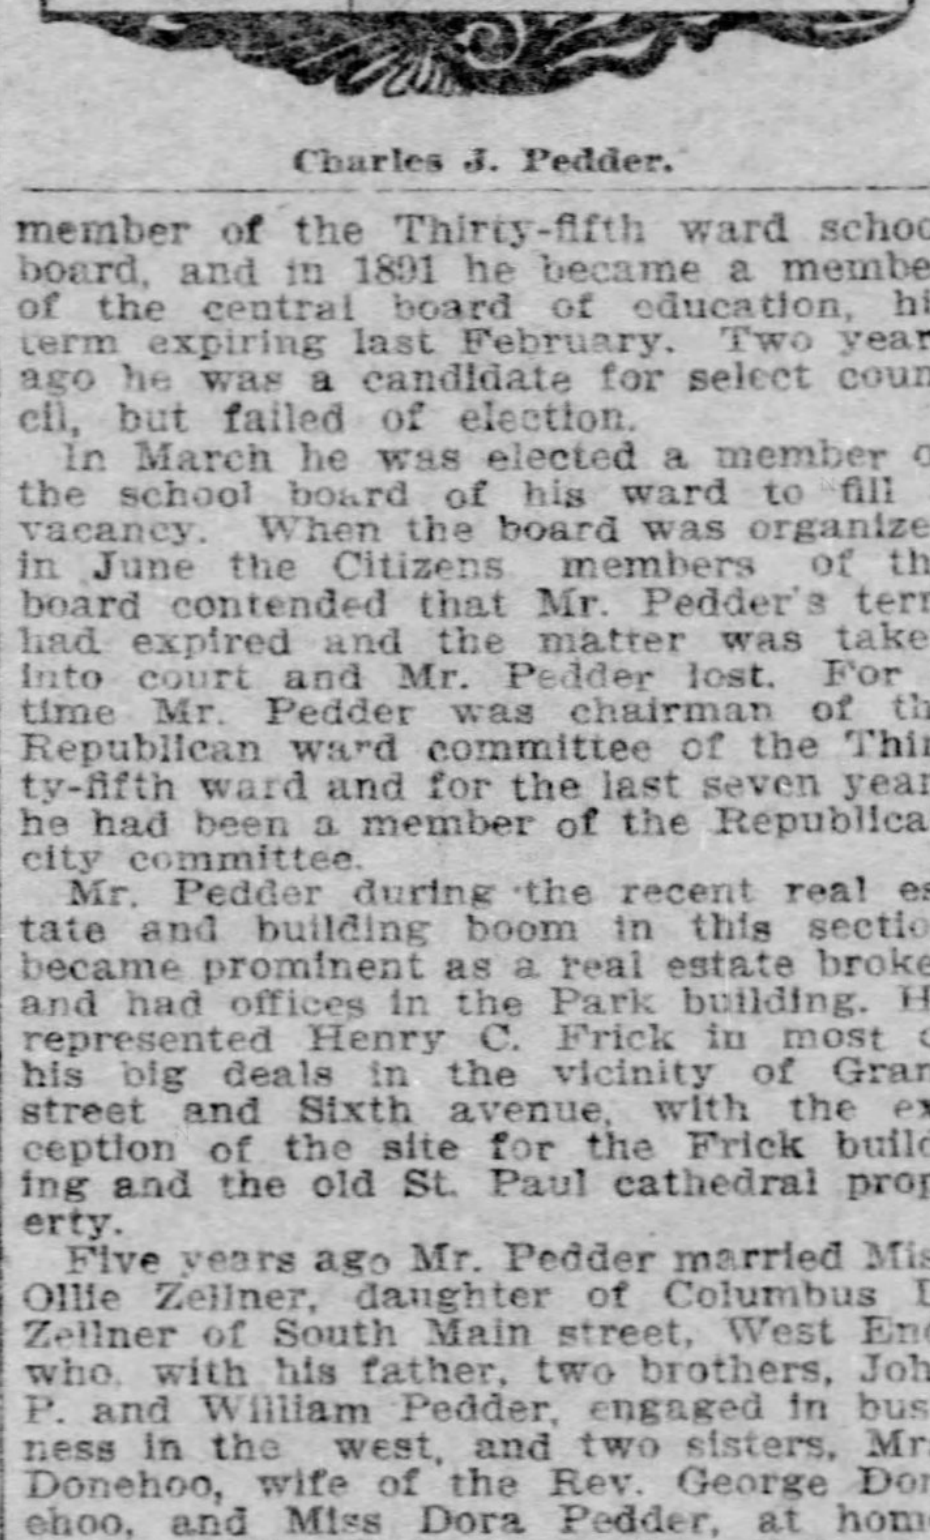
CHARLES J. PEDDER DIES AFTER A LONG ILLNESS

Was Prominent in Business and Republican Politics in This City.

Charles J. Pedder, the well-known real estate broker and Republican politician, who had been ill for three weeks, died last evening at 5:10 o'clock at his home in Kearns street, Duquesne Heights. He suffered from rheumatism and nervous trouble and his life was despaired of almost from the beginning of his illness.

Mr. Pedder was born in the Thirty-fifth ward. He resigned his seat in council in 1896 on his election to the lower branch in the Pennsylvania legislature. His father, John Pedder, succeeded him in select council and was re-elected in 1898. After serving one term in the legislature Mr. Pedder was elected a member of the Thirty-fifth ward school board, and in 1891 he became a member of the central board of education, his term expiring last February. Two years ago he was a candidate for select council, but failed of election.



Charles J. Pedder.

In March he was elected a member of the school board of his ward to fill a vacancy. When the board was organized in June the Citizens members of the board contended that Mr. Pedder's term had expired and the matter was taken into court and Mr. Pedder lost. For a time Mr. Pedder was chairman of the Republican ward committee of the Thirty-fifth ward and for the last seven years he had been a member of the Republican city committee.

Mr. Pedder during the recent real estate and building boom in this section became prominent as a real estate broker and had offices in the Park building. He represented Henry C. Frick in most of his big deals in the vicinity of Grant street and Sixth avenue, with the exception of the site for the Frick building and the old St. Paul cathedral property.

Five years ago Mr. Pedder married Miss Ollie Zellner, daughter of Columbus D. Zellner of South Main street, West End, who, with his father, two brothers, John P. and William Pedder, engaged in business in the west, and two sisters, Mrs. Donehoo, wife of the Rev. George Donehoo, and Miss Dora Pedder, at home, survive. Mr. Pedder's mother died some years ago.

A MINER'S TROUBLE

REACHES A CLIMAX AFTER YEARS OF SLOW DEVELOPMENT.

A Settlement Happily Effected in the Case of Henry Story in Time to Avert a Serious Misfortune.

If all the troubles of the coal miners could be adjusted as satisfactorily as that which for many months disturbed the happiness of Mr. Henry Story of 532 Muskingum avenue, Zanesville, Ohio, it would be a most welcome relief for both the men and their families.

The miners form a large and important part of our population, and they will be greatly interested in the solution which Mr. Story found for a difficulty in which any one of them may find himself at any moment, as it is a frequent incident in the miner's occupation and a serious hindrance to his success.

The facts in the case were related by Mrs. Story, who was deeply concerned, and who is a very happy woman today because her husband has had such a fortunate escape from the calamity that threatened him.

"My husband," says Mrs. Story, "is a very hard working man and has always been very healthy, but some months ago rheumatism got hold of him, and made him suffer terribly, and would soon have used him up if it had not been for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, which, we think, are the best medicine in the world.

"He suffered so much in his legs that he could hardly stand; his back hurt, and he had such pain in his left arm that he could not rest night or day. His arm would turn numb and I would have to rub and bathe it in hot water. I tried everything I could think of to give him relief.

"At last he went to a doctor, who told him that his trouble had come from hard work. The doctor gave him some medicine, but it did not do any good.

"In the meantime I picked up a paper and read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and thought my husband's trouble might be with his nerves. I got two boxes of the pills for him and had to urge him to take them, because he had always been so healthy that he was not in the habit of taking medicine.

"After he had taken the first box he felt much better, and when he had finished the second box he was better still. So I bought six boxes the next time and he took four of them, that is six boxes in all. That is three months ago and he has never had an ache or pain since and can do a hard day's work with any young man. We praise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all our friends."

These famous pills cure all diseases of the blood such as rheumatism, and of the nerves such as neuralgia and partial paralysis. They effect radical cures in obstinate maladies because they go to the root of the trouble, expelling all poisons from the blood, and supplying nuritive elements that repair wasted tissues and give fresh vitality to weakened nerves. They are sold by all druggists. A special booklet on Nervous Disorders, or on Diseases of the Blood, may be obtained by simply writing to Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

A Sensation in the Domain of Flora.

The New Climbing Polyantha Rose from Japan, Crimson Rambler, the Package containing one Pink and one Crimson Rose, and the two sold today for.................. 25c

We sent out yesterday and paid $1 for the same shoots.

We must get you to understand this perfectly: You will not buy a rose bush in bloom, but the bush ready to set out, which will in a very short time be full of blooming roses.

The capacity of this Crimson Rambler for climbing is simply marvelous. It will grow from 8 to 10 feet in a season, and as a profuse bloomer it easily leads any genus that Flora has in her conservatory. One shoot has been known to produce 300 blossoms.

On special table today in West street floor, immediately to right of Penn Avenue entrance, these shoots will be on sale at 25c a package, and each package will have two—one a beautiful crimson, the other a beautiful shell pink.

You can have your veranda trellised round with these beautiful flowers, and you can have them clustering at your windows in a very little while, provided you take time by the forelock and attend to the matter at once.

At the same place we will also have on sale today bulbs and seeds, as follows:

Tall and dwarf Canna Bulbs, 30c a dozen.
Calodium Bulbs, 10c each, $1.00 dozen.
Gladiolus Bulbs, 15c dozen.

Complete line of Mandeville & King's flower seeds, the most reliable on the market. With every 25c purchase a 5c package free.

We're Hatting the Men of Pittsburg

We're doing it in our usual way of doing things—giving them better hats for less money than they had thought possible.

You know, of course, that we have the best styles here, not once or twice a year, but all the year. Perhaps you don't know we have your particular style.

Every man looks best in some particular style of hat. Very often he doesn't know why. A great deal depends upon his height, his build, his cast of features, etc., and thus it is we take pains to make you feel satisfied.

The best hats in the world for dress, for business, for any social use, are here, yet prices are not nearly so high as in other hat stores.

The newest and most correct shapes in men's Derbies and Soft Hats, $2.00, $3.00, $3.50, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00.
The best examples of Silk Hats are shown at $6.00 and $8.00.
Automobile Hats and Caps, both in leather and cravenette, all the new novelties, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00.

We do not allow all the gushing to be done over our men's hats. No. This Hat Store looks out for the children—always ready with the very latest ideas in proper headwear for the youngsters. The very latest styles of Hats and Caps at $1.00 and up to $5.00. Take a look through the variety of wide brim straw sailors, in white, blue, black and mixed straws, all inexpensive.

French Silk Hose, $1.95 Pr., Regularly $3.50

Here's what we said of these fine French Silk Stockings yesterday afternoon. Don't see that we could improve the matter:

So good as to invite the trite exclamation, Wonder of wonders! Black Hose of finest French silk, gauzy and lustrous, silk clocking on both sides, one dollar and fifty-five cents less than usual low price.

How did we get them to sell for such a small price? Well, if you wear any size other than nine you'll find out. They are all nines. Eight women out of ten wear that size.

Frankly, if we had a line of sizes no woman would buy these fine stockings for one cent less than $3.50. That would be cheap for them, and on second thought do not know but what we would ask more.

Ready this morning, Stocking Counter, street floor, East.

Parasols for Little Girls.

Today we have a special exhibit of Parasols for little girls. At the same time there will be shown new novelties that young ladies will have their eye upon soon.

Both lines are larger and more varied this season than ever. For little girls we have the neatest of parasols at 85c, $1.00 and $1.50.

For young ladies we have parasols beginning in price at $1.00 and ranging up to $3.00.

As a special in girls' Parasols $1.00 is quoted today for a capital little Parasol having seven ruffles, which cover the entire parasol.

Saturday, April 16, 1904.

A reminder comes from London that aside from the Japanese-Russian conflict there are five other wars in progress. Three of these are accredited to England, one to Germany and one to the United States. Our own appears to be the least serious of the lot, for the Moro disturbance can hardly be dignified by the name of war. The English are having some serious business in Africa and so are the Germans. The Thibetan expedition, on the other hand, is not really war. Neither do we believe it will become war. The Thibetans have been taught a lesson and will probably agree to the British desire that the expedition shall be a peaceful one.

There is a conflict of authority between Director Moore and Magistrate Stewart, apparently, as to whether certain cases should be returned to court or summarily disposed of at central station. Director Moore has clearly the logical end of the argument, but Magistrate Stewart has the advantage in practice. Repeated arrests and the imposition of moderate fines has no effect toward decreasing the evil which the director is properly endeavoring to suppress. Return of the cases to court would bring decided results. But the police magistrate at central station has a keen eye for the revenues and the director has no control over him. The question is up to the mayor. He alone can say whether the director of the department of public safety is to be given the support that will make his policy effective. What does the mayor think about it?

It appears the Petropavlovsk disaster included a serious loss to the world of art, since it is believed the great war painter, Vasilli Verestchagin perished with Admiral Makaroff and his men. Verestchagin's death brings the horrors of war vividly home to Pittsburghers who had the opportunity to study his magnificent art collection at Carnegie hall, Allegheny, little more than 10 years ago. It may be said that Verestchagin had virtually created a school of art of his own. His paintings were intensely realistic and many of them dramatic in the highest degree. War was his favorite topic, and he pictured it in its most appalling aspects, though he was himself a fighter and distinguished for bravery. Between the painter and Admiral Makaroff there was a strong personal friendship, and the world has suffered in their violent taking off.

There is an unconfirmed report of the repulse of a Japanese landing party in Manchuria, the account stating that 12,000 Japanese had landed before the Russians disclosed their presence and drove the surprised troops back to their transports. It is just possible this might happen, though it is at variance with all that is known of the Japanese secret service and methods. Unless the Russian force was a very large one, the 12,000 Japanese, with the assistance of gunboats accompanying the transports, should have given a good account of themselves. There is, however, a report from Japanese sources at Seoul that landing operations have been successfully carried out in the vicinity where the repulse is alleged to have taken place. There is no official information from either side at this writing, but it is reasonable to assume the Japanese will try to land in Manchuria at some point.

An end has come to the taking of testimony in the Harwick mine inquest, proper. A complete report was submitted by the state bureau of mines, covering the investigations of the mine inspectors after the explosion, which leaves no reasonable doubt about the cause of the explosion or the conditions that led to it. This report is confirmed in the main by that submitted by the commission of expert miners employed by the owners of the mine to make an examination, though the two differ on the possibility of such a disaster occurring if the law had been fully complied with in every respect. The unfortunate clash between the coroner and the state officials marred the inquiry to some extent, but should not be allowed to affect the verdict. If the verdict is not approved by Chief Roderick he will ask the governor for a state commission of inquiry to settle the points in dispute, so there is little fear that justice will not be done in the end.

It is reported from the far east that Russia disapproves the wireless telegraph to such an extent that it gives notice that war correspondents who use it will be treated as spies and shot. The effect of this order will probably be to confine wireless telegraph stations to the sea and the shores of neutral territory. The order does not reflect particular credit upon Russia, though it would be unreasonable to complain greatly of the censorship established by belligerent nations during the formative period of a campaign. There is no sense in preventing the dissemination of news about battles, or casualties after the fact, and war correspondents should use some discretion in not trying to transmit information that might be of value to the enemy. Japan is even tighter in its censorship than Russia, but has sensibly refrained from making threats against correspondents whose hands it is able to tie.

An interesting feature of the present situation in Korea is the vigor with which the Japanese have begun work upon the railway designed to join Seoul and Wiju. The immediate object in view is the construction of a light military railway as far as Ping-Yang, which will subsequently be made permanent and extended to Wiju. Three thousand military engineers under the command of a major general are detailed for this purpose. One hundred miles of rails, bolts and other ironwork are in course of shipment from Japan. This road will connect west of Seoul with a railway extending the whole length of Korea to Fu-San, the port at its southeastern extremity nearest to Japan. Nearly 100 miles of the Fu-San road are ready and the line should be completed by autumn. The Ping-Yang scheme is designed to be completed by September. All these points are significant of the strategic value which Japan places on the combined projects. It is evidence of the thoroughness of her plans that she is preparing for the possibility of military reverses in Manchuria, but, whatever happens, intends to hold fast to Korea, and, should she fail to drive the Russians from Chinese territory and be compelled to defend the Korean frontier, the existence of a railway in the rear, running to a port within ferrying distance of Japan, will be of inestimable value.

Carnegie's Noble Fund.

Andrew Carnegie's latest benevolence, of which the first information was given to the public through The Gazette more than a month ago, takes the form of a hero fund. Mr. Carnegie was strongly impressed by the heroism of Selwyn M. Taylor, the mining engineer, and David Lysle of Leechburg, who lost their lives in the Harwick mine in the effort to rescue others. Soon afterward he agreed to duplicate the entire subscriptions of the public for the relief of the widows and orphans, an act that reflects highest credit upon his generosity. At about the same time he decided to create the hero fund for the permanent relief of widows and orphans of heroic life-savers and for the proper recognition and commemoration of deeds of heroism in the peaceful walks of life.

Details of Mr. Carnegie's plan are given to the public this morning, together with the names of the commissioners selected to administer the fund of $5,000,000. These particulars leave no room to doubt that the donor gave to the project much earnest thought, evolving the matter with as much care as he might have bestowed upon any of his earlier money-making ventures. The fund is unique. National treasuries have been drawn upon in the past for rewards for distinguished courage, pensions to the families of dead heroes and medals of honor. In this country government favors of this sort have been awarded almost exclusively to war heroes. Mr. Carnegie, however, assumes the paternal function of doing like favors for the heroes of peace in the United States and Canada.

Among all the Carnegie philanthropies there is none more commendable than this. It has often happened that heroic men have died in the unselfish effort to succor their fellows, leaving destitute families to suffer the penalty of such glorious self-sacrifice. The common resort in such cases is to popular subscription, usually inadequate, occasionally munificent and frequently not wisely administered. Mr. Carnegie has no disposition to repress the desire of any one to give of his means for the reward of heroism. He specifies distinctly that it is the purpose of his fund to supplement the generous impulses of the public, only, and to wisely administer continuous relief after public interest has waned. It is a noble purpose. Mr. Carnegie emphasizes the truth that

> "Peace hath her victories, no less renowned than war."

A Hero True.

It is well that we once in awhile pause to think of the sort of men who willingly offer their lives as a sacrifice in an effort to save the lives of others. And such a man was Gunner's Mate Manson of the battleship Missouri. Seeing the danger that lay in the open door of the magazine, Manson, without a thought for his own safety, closed the door—with himself inside. Apparently he was facing certain death. If the ship had foundered there would have been no avenue of escape open. In the flooding of the magazine there was an added danger. But his thought was for the safety of his comrades and his beloved ship. That he escaped with his life was through no effort of his own.

Manson was only one of 600 of the same sort. Every man on board quietly did his duty just as he had been trained to it. We are too prone to overlook these "heroes of the line" in the light of those better known heroes on whom the spot-light of publicity is more often turned. But it requires just as stout a heart for the gunner's mate to offer his life as a sacrifice to duty as it does for the captain of the ship or the admiral of the fleet.

So from the deplorable accident to the Missouri comes at least one ray of sunshine. We are reminded that our ships are well manned, our officers thoroughly trained, and that everywhere, from the lowest to the highest, can be found quickness of thought and rapidity of action in the time of the greatest danger.

The Business Situation.

Three groups of statistics appeared during the week which are always looked for with interest by the business community for the purpose of judging the trend of events. In the order of their appearance they were the government crop report, the monthly statement of our foreign commerce and the report of pig iron production. As a whole they created a favorable impression, but in one particular the showing was decidedly unfavorable. The government crop report was the first of the season bearing upon conditions. The returns of the department of agriculture indicated an average condition of the winter wheat on April 1 of 76.5 per cent, which is 21 points below the average reported a year ago, and the lowest on record at this season. Unofficial reports received since the compilation by the government suggest that there has been further deterioration this month, and the May return will likely be the poorest ever reported. Ordinarily the greatest damage to winter wheat occurs during April and May. Last year, for example, the condition on April 1 was 97.3, the highest ever reported, and indicated a crop of 589,000,000 bushels, but the actual harvest amounted to only 399,000,000 bushels. Based upon this week's figures there is an indicated yield of 425,000,000 bushels, so there is still the possibility that the yield this year will equal that of last year. There is also the possibility that the average of spring wheat may be increased and under favorable conditions the total yield of both grades of wheat will exceed last year's total.

The full returns covering our foreign commerce for the month of March are much more favorable than the preliminary estimates indicated. The exports of agricultural products decreased in value about $17,000,000, as compared with the corresponding month last year, but there was an increase in non-agricultural products, so that the net decrease in our sales to foreign consumers amounted to only $12,200,000. On the other hand, our purchases of foreign merchandise fell off nearly $5,000,000, and the balance in our favor for the month was $28,511,000. For the nine months of the fiscal year the balance of trade in favor of the United States amounts to $422,297,610, which has been exceeded but once since 1898. Within the same period we have received $56,000,000 more gold than we exported. If we were to exclude 1901, in which year all conditions were unprecedentedly favorable to the United States, the present returns would be regarded as satisfactory in the extreme.

The figures compiled by the Iron Age relating to the pig iron output for March sustain all that has been said of the improvement that has taken place in the iron trade. The production for March was 1,465,507 tons, an increase of more than 260,000 tons over February and more than 573,000 tons over December last. At the same time furnace stocks on hand, sold and unsold, decreased, showing that consumption was in excess of production. The output is still considerably below the maximum reached last June, and the average of prices is much lower, but the decided change for the better as compared with conditions prevailing during the last two months of 1903 and the first month of 1904 is certainly very encouraging.

Mercantile and industrial affairs are still far from satisfactory. The backward season interferes with the drygoods trade, and at the same time retards farm work. Railroad earnings almost invariably show decreases as compared with the same period last year, indicating a smaller distribution of commodities. There was, however, one incident of the week which proves that progress is being made in the readjustment of wages, giving assurance of a minimum disturbance from labor troubles when weather conditions are more propitious. This was the agreement reached between employers and employes in the tin plate industry.

Domestic money markets continue very easy, and improvement abroad was reflected in the action of the governors of the Bank of England in reducing the minimum rate of discount from 4 per cent, where it has stood since early last September, to 3½ per cent.

A Philadelphia contemporary published a cartoon on Sunday of the grim figure of winter being slain by the little David of spring, with this legend beneath the expiring giant: "At last!" Directly below the weather forecast read: "Snow and colder." The spring poet can now declare, "There are others."

Just as the Russians had almost become fatalists because of the "accidental" loss of so many of their battleships, it was whispered about that the Japanese were using submarine boats. Thus do Admiral Togo and Kismet go hand in hand.

Troubles do not come singly even to "Buffalo Bill." Now one of the stockholders of his wild west show has a hankering for a share of the profits. He accuses the colonel of monopolizing the money as well as the advertising.

The Quiet Observer

ERASMUS WILSON.

Are you aware of the fact that when you are sick in body, as well as in mind, that you are, in a manner, insane?

The word insane literally means without health, unsound. It comes from the Latin sanus, meaning healthy, sound, normal. Sanitary, as you know, means unhealthy, unsound, abnormal.

Are you sane, or in good sanitary condition, in body as well as in mind?

"Mens sana, in corpore sano"—sound mind in sound body—implies that the two belong together, which is altogether reasonable.

The reasonableness of this is settled by the fact that the condition of the body affects the mind more or less and that the mind exerts a marked influence on the body.

Much of the mental unsoundness of which we hear a great deal is due directly to the effect of unsound, or insane bodies, on the mind. One of the strong proofs of the correctness of this is the failure to find any, or at most but few traces of disease, or of practical lesions in the brains of those who had suffered with most serious mental disorders until death.

And that many physical, or bodily ills, are due to mental influence is well known to all.

✻ ✻ ✻ ✻ ✻

In view of these facts is it not most important that people should know how to take care of their bodies, and thus secure sane minds—that is, healthy, sound minds?

We spend a great deal of money on our common schools and on our various institutions of learning, but in none of these are boys and girls taught the art of living. Instead of giving attention to that which will insure healthy, sound minds, we begin taxing their undeveloped minds as soon as they will bear the least strain and keep right on taxing them until the end.

If, perchance, a mind is lacking in vigor on account of mal-nutrition of the body, we tickle it, or spur it up in various ways—force it, if no other way will answer.

And yet we would hardly do this with a colt, or a puppy, particularly if we desired to make them into something worth while. If the colt was not thrifty, full of life, and anxious for exercise, we would look out where the trouble lay, and when found would proceed to remove it before sending it to training school to be classed with sound, healthy colts and made to do the same work required of them.

But with our children it is different, and the difference makes it all the worse for them.

✻ ✻ ✻ ✻ ✻

Physiology appears in some of the school courses, but it is presented in such an unattractive and uninteresting way that it is no wonder pupils and teachers abominate it.

But when presented in proper form there is no more interesting study than human physiology, nor one that will prove more profitable to teachers and pupils alike. It is something we never grow tired of, because it is all about ourselves, and the more we know about the machine which does all things for us, the better care we give it.

What does the average man and woman know about their bodies?

What do you know about your own?

You may ask what does the horse and dog know about theirs?

The cases are by no means parallel. The horse and the dog are governed by instinct. Their tastes are fixed, and they are satisfied if they can gratify them as did their ancestors in the Garden of Eden, or anywhere.

We are given intelligence instead of instinct, together with freedom to do that which we know to be proper, and feel inclined to do. We have to be taught that which the animal knows instinctively. We have to be taught what to eat, and when and how to eat.

By the way, it is a most important thing to know what, and when, and how to eat, since a very large percentage of the ills of life are due to ignorance concerning the use of food.

✻ ✻ ✻ ✻ ✻

Beauty is a sign of health—that is, true beauty. Prettiness is not, at least not always.

Without health no one can be beautiful, nor even really handsome. Health always suggests strength. In fact, strength and vigor are the direct results of healthy conditions of body and mind. And it is these that render the person handsome. Can you imagine anything weak and puny being handsome?

Then why does not my lady turn her attention to herself and find out for herself why she is not as beautiful or as handsome as she would like to be? She can do this in a fraction of the time she devotes to her toilet and to her dressmaker. But it seems that she won't do it, preferring artificial improvements to the kind nature would apply, and would have given if there had been no interference with her plans.

If mothers desire their daughters to be beautiful, handsome and bright, why don't they turn in and learn how to so care for them that they will be healthy, sound and handsome?

But they seem to prefer to let them go as they please until they are turned over to the schoolmaster, and finally trust to having them finished off in beautiful form in some boarding school with a high-sounding name.

✻ ✻ ✻ ✻ ✻

The ignorance of men and women concerning themselves is simply astounding when you take into account the value that such knowledge would be to them, and to the world through them, directly and indirectly.

Such ignorance is sin, don't you think?

No doubt the individual will suffer the penalty, but in all probability won't know it, being too ignorant or too indifferent to search for the cause of his suffering.

And that isn't all.

These same unsound, ignorant, indifferent people are marrying as fast as ever they can, and many of them are helping to repopulate the earth as fast as they can. This would be all right if they were the right kind of people, and their children were of sound body and sound mind.

This, no doubt, is the prime cause of the decline of great civilizations in the past, as well as the prime cause of the fall of great nations. And it will cause any nation to fall, no matter how great it is, nor how much it boasts of its wealth of knowledge, unless it wisely improves its growing people—its stock in trade, so to speak.

There isn't much use preaching to those whose virtues and vices are already fixed, but there are the children to be educated and trained. May there not be some way by which they can be brought up right and proper?

Following is a nine-year-old clipping, which the author sends with a request that it be reprinted, it fully representing her sentiments now as well as when she wrote it, nearly a decade ago:

Mr. Quiet Observer:—You have so many readers among the young that you should be very careful what you write. So far I have no serious complaints to make, but I would like to say a word or two on the kissing question.

If one may judge from the tone of the discussion it seems that kissing is regarded merely as a harmless amusement. That is a great mistake, and one that has often led to serious results. No one will deny that it excites the passion of animal love, nor that it does not tend to weaken that modest reserve that should ever be maintained by men and women, especially the latter.

I have heard men say that if they can squeeze and kiss a girl ad libitum they can do as they please with her. This is not true in all cases, but a great many men believe that it is, and for that reason they haven't the same respect for a girl who permits such liberties they have for one who does not. I would ask your many girl readers to bear this in mind at all times.

There is another phase of the subject that I think is not regarded as seriously as it deserves.

Susceptible girls, and boys, too, are led to believe that they are really loved by those who kiss and caress them. The most of us have known girls who have thus been led to place the utmost confidence in young men who, after tiring of their kisses, left them disappointed, if not heartbroken. This is a frequent occurrence, and in many instances the consequences are most sad indeed.

Being a woman, and having had varied experiences, and something of an observer, I know whereof I speak, and as one who loves her kind, I ask all girls, and all women, who read this, to be warned of the danger that lurks in a kiss. Many unhappy marriages may be traced directly to the excitement of the passions of animal love by such indulgences. This false love soon wears off, and unhappiness is sure to follow.

Keep on discussing the kissing question, but keep both sides of it in view.

NEW YORK, April 15.—With the baseball and racing seasons both in full swing there should be no lack of sport now for the New Yorker. Horse racing began at Aqueduct this afternoon, and it was one of the most successful openings, in point of attendance and general interest, that has ever been recorded at that popular race course by the sea. Very early the crowds began to make their way to the track by the various lines of railway and trolley at their disposal. Aqueduct is in the vicinity of Far Rockaway, and it cannot be reached in a minute from Manhattan. Who cares? Distance does not trouble the real lover of horse racing, and there were thousands in the grandstand and about the field before noon. At 1 o'clock, when the crowd was waiting for the bugler to announce the first event, the multitude overflowed everything, particularly the betting ring.

There are many people in this city opposed to gambling who do not see the harm in putting down a wager on the "ponies." As they cannot do it easily in the city, now that poolrooms generally are out of business, they make it a point to get down to the track as often as possible, where they may enjoy betting to their hearts' content. So there is always a powerful leaven of highly responsible citizenship at Aqueduct. In the hotel lobbies and cafes tonight the subject of talk generally is horses. That is one of the tributary pleasures of the turf discussion of the races past and to come in the evening. While there was nothing sensational on this opening day, there were many interesting features, each of which has been regarded from all points of view since dinner by men of all shades of opinion. Now that the season has opened, horse talk will be served up regularly every evening, and the comedians along Broadway will inject turf jokes and "gags" into their parts as ruthlessly as of yore. New York would miss the "ponies" in summer almost as much as they would bewail the loss of their various "beaches" if either catastrophe were possible.

Toy Pistol Season Opened.

The toy pistol claimed a victim at St. Luke's hospital today. A 14-year-old boy was firing blank cartridges a fortnight ago, and shot himself in the hand. He died of lockjaw this morning.

Rather Suffer Than Submit.

Suffering for a principle argues the thoroughbred, whether he be a multi-millionaire or a day laborer. When Louis Stuyvesant Chanler, known to the world as a philanthropist, litterateur, athlete, man of the world and lawyer, elected to take a sentence of 10 days to Ludlow street jail today, rather than pay a fine of $100 which he considered unjust, he carried out his conviction of noblesse oblige. To have submitted would, to his mind, have been unworthy of him and his family. That is the truth of it, even though persons of less perceptions of what he believed to be honorable conduct may call him merely an obstinate fellow. Whether Chanler will ultimately have to spend 10 days in the dingy jail in a close and stuffy street or not has no bearing on the question which the young man is trying to decide for himself. Charged with contempt of court, Chanler insisted that he was not guilty. Unfortunately for the defendant, Judge Newburger, on the bench, differed, and the court has the last word in such a case. It is a most unusual incident, and the outcome will be interesting alike to the lawyer and the ordinary student of human nature.

Problem of Automobile Speed.

Despite the frequent fining of chauffeurs, the automobile continues its rampant course about the streets and avenues of Manhattan. One man was fined $25 today. The police averred that he was going at a speed of 18 miles an hour, but the defendant said it was much less. This moved the court to say that he had yet to hear a chauffeur admit that he was traveling faster than the limit allowed by law. In saying this the magistrate touched a peculiar phase of the automobile problem—for it is a problem in every crowded city—which impresses everyone giving the matter any attention. Here is the problem: Whether a person in an automobile loses the power to place an accurate estimate on the rate at which he is moving, or whether the tendency of human kind to make excuses for itself reaches the acute degree of downright mendacity in a chauffeur. No one has answered it satisfactorily, but the magistrate today gave a broad hint that was hardly complimentary to the man at the lever.

The Bicycle Again.

One of the results of the improved paving of New York's streets is a decided revival of the use of bicycles. Asphalted pavements are so general in both Manhattan and Brooklyn that a bicyclist can ride smoothly from the northernmost confines of Harlem to the Battery if he likes. He would not come all the way down Broadway, because there are stretches of cobblestones with oases of asphalt on that thoroughfare, but when he strikes the cobbles he can always turn off to a parallel street, and still keep on asphalt. A great many bicycles are in use this week, especially in the evenings. A few years ago wheelmen to the number of thousands abandoned the amusement because they objected to bumping over rough pavements. Today the asphalt is almost everywhere, while the macadamized country roads in New Jersey, Long Island and West Chester are as smooth as the asphalt. There is every reason for wheeling becoming a favorite sport again, and the indications are that it will.

Dangers of the Cozy Corner.

'Ware the deadly cozy corner. In a comfortable parlor in a private house on the West Side this morning a fire broke out among some cushions in a cozy corner, destroyed half a dozen fancy pillows and took all the spring out of a leather covered couch. The house was saved with difficulty. In the absence of certain knowledge as to the origin of the fire, perhaps it was a case of spontaneous combustion, for it is understood that a young man popped the question to the daughter of the house in the cozy corner last evening.

Ponderous Machinery of Law.

There was a pitiful scene in the children's court in Brooklyn this morning, when 8-year-old Julian Weyh, who accidentally killed his little brother with a pistol while they were playing "Indians" a day or two ago, was arraigned. Julian is a diminutive youngster, and the ponderous machinery of the law seemed to be awfully disproportionate when it was brought down on him. He cried bitterly throughout the proceedings, and could hardly tell his story of the accident for sobs. He was sent back to the Children's society and will undergo further examination later. This is the decree of the law, but, since it has been established that the pistol went off accidentally in the hand of the lad, the long drawn out proceedings look a great deal like firing at a sparrow with a 13-inch gun.

The announcement is made that Col. Guffey proposes at the coming Democratic state convention to give Hearst and Bryan a few well merited jolts, and that some real resolutions will be passed. The Nation's Capital

L. W. STRAYER.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The committee on agriculture and forestry has reported favorably to the senate the Latimer good roads bill. While this action does not necessarily mean that the bill will pass this congress, and while it is quite sure to at least go over until the next session, yet the action of the committee is significant and gives the good roads movement much encouragement. This agitation in favor of road building is no longer confined to the country districts, but the city residents are becoming more interested in it, possibly due to the extensive use of automobiles. It is almost unanimously agreed among the members of congress that the time has come for the national government to take a hand in the improvement of the roads and the only question upon which there is a difference of opinion is the means that should be employed and the extent to which the funds of the government should be contributed at the start.

During the present session of congress many were the expressions that have been heard upon the floor of both branches to the effect that the government should do more for internal improvements. These arguments were aimed principally in the direction of river and harbor work, but they also applied to all public highways, either on water or on land. The bill introduced by Senator Latimer of South Carolina, and just reported favorably to the senate, is "To establish in the department of agriculture a bureau to be known as the bureau of public highways, and to provide for national aid in the improvement of the public roads."

Method of Improving Roads.

There are to be three commissioners of highways, one a Republican and one a Democrat, while the third is to be an officer of the engineer corps of the United States army not lower than the rank of captain. These commissioners are to receive each a salary of $5,000 a year and they are to co-operate with officials of states, territories, counties or cities for the purpose of building roads. The commissioners have the right to decide whether a road is of sufficient importance to warrant its improvement, taking into consideration the use, location and value of such highway for the purposes of common traffic and travel and for the delivery of the mail. When an improvement has been decided upon, one-half the expense shall be borne by the national government and half by the state government or a civil subdivision thereof. The amount that each state or territory may receive from the general government for road improvement is limited by the following clause:

"No state or territory shall receive in any one year a larger proportion of the sum hereby appropriated than its population bears to the population of the United States."

To carry out the purposes of this act, $24,000,000 is appropriated to cover a period of three years, permitting the expenditure of $8,000,000 a year. If any portion of the $8,000,000 remains unexpended for one year, the balance may be used in the succeeding year.

What Pennsylvania Would Receive.

According to the apportionment mentioned above, Pennsylvania, with 6,600,000 population, would be entitled to about 8 per cent of the $8,000,000 each year, of $640,000. It will be very easy for each state to compute the amount that it would receive from the national government for this purpose, providing, of course, it appropriates an equal sum for road building. This bill represents the sum total of the public efforts of Senator Latimer and if he should succeed in getting it through congress his life work will have been practically done, although he is yet a young man. This is his first term in the senate, although he has served several terms in the house, and his efforts have all been directed toward the building of good roads in the United States.

He was born in 1851, near Lownesville, Abbeville county, South Carolina, and his boyhood was spent on his father's farm. Nearly his entire life, except since his election to congress, was spent in agricultural pursuits and it is agreed that he s well qualified to discuss good roads as they affect the farmer. Mr. Latimer has studied the question of road building and is considered an expert on the subject. He is in constant demand to speak at good roads conventions and at farmers' meetings. Although a Democrat, he has endeavored to make this a non-partisan and non-political issue based solely upon the public good.

Gen. Hernandez an Exile.

The sudden recall of Gen. Herandez, minister from Venezuela, a few weeks ago, caused quite a sensation in diplomatic circles. There was much speculation about it, but the ways of South American politics are past understanding and soon the public ceased to guess. Gen. Hernandez, who bears the sobriquet "El Mocho" (the maimed one), closed up his legation here and left Washington, supposedly for Caracas to report to President Castro. Now it is said that he has not left this country, but is staying in Philadelphia, practically an exile. Letters have been forwarded to him there from this city. The impression was general, even among the members of the South American diplomatic colony here, that Gen. Hernandez, after giving up the legation, had straightway started for Caracas, and it was feared that his advent there would immediately stir up the old revolutionary fight in which "El Mocho" figured so prominently against Castro. It appears now that should "El Mocho" land at Caracas he would be at once thrown into prison, with prospect, apparently, the old hero does not relish, having undergone a similar experience before.

Minister Hernandez's recall came about as the result of a letter which he wrote to President Castro, criticising him for certain features of the government. President Castro resented being taken to task by his old rival, and wrote Gen. Hernandez an angry letter, accusing him of fomenting another rebellion, for which reason he was not fit to represent the government. The minister's pay was then stopped, and he was summoned to Venezuela to discuss certain things which "could be better talked about than written about," as President Castro expressed it.

Evidently "El Mocho" did not trust the sincerity of this last message, and he has not taken advantage of President Castro's invitation. The friends of the old general say he will eventually return to Caracas, and that it will be a sad day for President Castro when he does, as his old supporters will rally about him in great force. It is believed that Gen. Hernandez's appearance in Caracas will be like a spark to stir up the revolutionary fires in Venezuela, and for the sake of harmony the hope is expressed that he will remain quietly in Philadelphia.

Morgan's Canal Valedictory.

Senator Morgan today delivered in the senate what will doubtless prove his valedictory on the isthmian canal question. Further opportunities may arise in the future for him to discuss the question, but from the present indications Morgan, the implacable enemy of the Panama route, who has fought the negotiations at every step, has had his last say. Himself conceded by all the senate to be responsible more than any other member of that body for the final success of an isthmian canal project, who has striven in season and out of season for this great work, yet when he was not able to have adopted the route which he thought best, he put his judgment against that of the engineering experts of the Panama canal commission, that of the administration and of others who have studied the question as it is presented on the isthmus, and has stubbornly opposed all the negotiations of the past two years.

Today the bill to provide a government for the canal strip was under consideration in the senate. It was the only bill which the Republican leaders feared might engender opposition and delay and prevent an early adjournment of congress, and consequently they were proceeding with extreme caution and diplomacy. Mr. Spooner made a speech very temperate in quality and carefully avoiding the utterance of any sentence that might evoke a reply from the Democrats. Senator Gorman and Senator Bacon submitted some amendments which were accepted by the Republicans with grace. All was moving smoothly and the bill was ready to be reported from the committee of the whole to the senate and immediately put upon a vote for its final passage. Just as this was to be done, Senator Morgan rose and said that "Before this bill goes from the committee of the whole to the senate, I would like to submit a few remarks."

Something Paris Gains from Us.

The Parisians have found a new use of the verb "to dope." Its original vogue was on the race tracks in this country to designate the drugging of horses just before races to increase their speed. As all French sporting slang is English, "dope" came to be used in the same sense at the race tracks by Paris. Now, however, it is in general use. If a Parisian takes a cab and the horse does not go fast enough, he says to the cabman, "Je dope." The horse begins to go as if by magic. The words mean an increased tip to the cabby.—New York Tribune.

Somewhat Like Polly.

The Hon. W. Bourke Cockran, member of congress from a district in the borough of Manhattan, sometimes called the city of New York, rises in all the wisdom of a Democratic statesman to remark that the less said in the national platform the better. Mr. Cockran expects to go to St. Louis and take a hand in the making of that platform, and, says he, "the fewer things it mentions the easier it will be for all Democrats to unite." In other words, the Democrats have been talking altogether too much and have not hit upon an issue worthy of mention.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A Very Active Youngster.

The Binghamton (N. Y.) Press proved itself a husky youngster by starting out with a 32-page illustrated paper on the day of its birth. It is a fine sample of newspaper building, and the same enterprise, if carried through the year, will make its first birthday anniversary worthy of celebration, not only by its publishers, but by the people of Binghamton. An up-to-date newspaper can do much for a city, and the advertising columns of the Press show that the new paper is warmly welcomed by the business men of Binghamton.

TURRET DISASTER IS TO BE PROBED

Extra Powder in the Handling Room Will Also Receive Attention.

RUSSIA EXPRESSES SYMPATHY

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Searching investigation will be made by the court of inquiry on the Missouri accident, regarding the statement that four charges of ammunition were in the handling room of the after turret of the Missouri ready to be hoisted to the turret at the time the explosion occurred. This fact has been reported in the newspaper dispatches from Pensacola and seems to be borne out by the statement of a number of officers, that it has been thought necessary, in order to fire as rapidly as our ships have been firing, to keep several charges in the turret room, even though it is not in accord with regulations, that no time may be lost in bringing the charges from the magazine.

If such be the case it can be stated that this condition of affairs will be promptly remedied. It was pointed out today at the navy department by an official that the custom prevailed on board the other ships of the navy of keeping several extra charges in the handling room during target practice, and it was said if this were so no one on the Missouri could be held responsible. "It is the system and not the personnel which would be at fault," said this official. Several high officials of the department had not before been aware of this practice and expressed surprise at the reports that such was the case. No action will be taken at the department until a full report of the accident and the findings of the court have been received.

To Investigate Target Practice.

It was learned tonight that the navy department is considering the appointment of a board of distinguished naval officers to take up the whole question of target practice in the navy, pass upon the efficiency of the precautions at present in practice and make a report to the secretary showing among other things whether the present system of target practice should be modified. The name of Admiral Dewey has been unofficially mentioned as the president of the board, but this has not been decided on.

A telegram received today at the navy department announces the appointment of Lieut. M. L. Bristol as judge advocate of the court of inquiry. Lieut. Bristol is one of the ordnance experts of the navy.

Count Cassini today conveyed the sympathy of the Russian government and people for the loss of so many lives on the Missouri, also speaking in feeling terms of the loss sustained by Russia in the destruction of the battleship Petropavlovsk. The French ambassador, M. Jusserand, also left a note with the secretary of the navy expressing the sympathy of his government for the Missouri horror.

The fund for the benefit of the next of kin of the Missouri victims is increasing. Today's subscriptions bring the total amount up to $700. On Monday afternoon "The Dream of Queen Elizabeth" will be repeated for the benefit of the families of the men who lost their lives.

Secretary Moody today transmitted to the house a request for a $10,000 appropriation to provide for the proper care of the remains of the victims of the explosion.

Memorial Services at Ellwood City.

Memorial services in honor of the men killed by the explosion on the Missouri will be held tomorrow morning at Ellwood City, where the annual meeting of the Marine Veterans' association of the United States will be held. Members of the association from every state in the Union will attend. National Chaplain Franz Valiroix will conduct the services.

Junior Lieut. Thomas Ward, Chief Gunners' Mate James F. Kennedy and Ordnance Sergt. Andrew Smith, three of the members of the Missouri crew, were members of the association. Jacques Le Belle, clerk to Superintendent of Police M. H. Campbell of Allegheny, is commander-in-chief of the association and was intimately acquainted with Lieut. Ward and Chief Gunners' Mate Kennedy. Le Belle served under Kennedy at the Big Island ship station, near Philadelphia, for several years, and was in the same gunners class with Ward.

Commander Le Belle yesterday sent letters to the commanders of each state fleet notifying them that the annual meeting will be held at Ellwood City, Pa., today and tomorrow, and ordering all squadrons and fleets to drape their charters for 90 days and all chaplains to hold services.

EXPELLED FROM EXCHANGE.

Summary Action Taken Against President of Storey Cotton Company.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15.—(Special.)—F. Ewart Storey, president of the Storey Cotton Company, was expelled from membership today by the board of directors of the cotton exchange. According to members of the board, this summary action was the result of an investigation of the company's business method.

The statement was made that Storey had never done a dollar's worth of trading on the floor of the exchange, but has used his membership only in advertising the company of which he is president. A facsimile of his membership card is emblazoned on the pamphlets setting forth the advantages of dealing in "cotton futures" through the company.

"We never knew before what sort of a business Storey was carrying on," said one of the directors today. "A few days ago one of his circulars came to our notice and an investigation was set on foot immediately. His expulsion from the exchange naturally followed."

WAGE QUESTION SETTLED.

The Conciliation Board Decides Problem Between Anthracite Operators and Miners.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15.—(Special.)—The net and gross question, arising over the basis of paying wages in the Schuylkill and Lehigh regions, which has been a bone of contention between the coal operators and the miners and their representatives on the anthracite conciliation board ever since the creation of that body, was settled by a compromise at the session held this afternoon in the Reading terminal building.

The method of payment will, dating from the first of this month, be computed on the gross earnings instead of the net, as hitherto. The compromise consisted in obtaining the percentage of increase by combining the advances gained in the strike of 1900 and 1902, instead of compounding them, as the miners had all along insisted should be done. The board will meet again at Wilkesbarre on Friday next.

SIX WARS NOW DISTURB PEACE

Armies of Germany, England and Uncle Sam Are Busy.

FIGHT IN ORIENT GREATEST

By PAUL LAMBETH.

[Special Cable to The Gazette.]

LONDON, April 15.—While interest is centered in the great war drama now being played in the east little attention is being paid to the little wars which are being fought in various parts of the world. There are five of them, and while no such momentous questions are involved as is the case in the struggle between Russia and Japan, each has an important bearing on the advance of civilization and, in the aggregate, the loss of human life has been greater than in the big war up to this time.

The most important of these wars, so far as its bearing on the world at large is concerned, is that which Great Britain is carrying on in Thibet. Several hundred Thibetans have been killed and if the opposition of the Dalai Lama continues, which seems altogether probable, the loss of life may run into the thousands. Col. Younghusband's column is pushing steadily on towards Lhassa and there seems little reason to doubt that before the summer has passed the tread of foreign troops will be heard in the capital of Buddhism, for the first time in recorded history and this forbidden land will, in effect, be a British colony. The British government makes no secrecy of its intention of establishing its paramountcy over Thibet.

Great Britain has two other little wars on its hands, both in Africa. The Mad Mullah has broken out again in Somaliland and is giving much trouble, while the tribesmen of Nigeria have attacked a British punitive column and defeated it with heavy loss. This means another and a stronger expedition and several months if not years of tropical bushwhacking fighting before the rebellious tribesmen are subdued.

Germany is having her troubles in Africa, and according to the reports received here has been getting rather the worst of it. The Herreros in her African possessions have proven stubborn and dangerous fighters who have inflicted heavier losses on the Germans than is usually inflicted on white men in these African wars.

America, too, is having her troubles. The campaign against the Moros has on the whole been successful, and these fierce pirates have for the first time felt the heavy hand of a master, for Spanish sovereignty over the Moros was entirely nominal. While the Americans have found it necessary to kill a great many of the rebellious Moros, it has not been done without loss.

According to advices received here, it is not improbable that an uprising of natives against the Belgians in the Congo Free State before long. The cruelties practiced against the negroes have, it is said, driven them well-nigh to desperation and they are reported to be about ready to fight.

While these little wars do not occupy much space in the papers these days, they are giving the war offices of at least three of the great powers no little concern.

PITTSBURGHER ARRIVES FROM MOSQUITO COAST

James Dietrick Brings Indian Children from Nicaragua to Be Educated.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, April 15.—James Dietrick of Pittsburgh, managing director of the United States and Nicaragua Company, arrived in Washington today accompanied by the four Mosquito Indian children that he brought from Nicaragua to be educated in this country. Two of them are children of King Andrew, head of the Mosquito nation.

Mr. Dietrick placed his charges in the Washington orphan asylum on Fourteenth street, where this evening they had their first meal with 125 American boys and girls. In this institution the Mosquito children will have the best of opportunity to learn the English tongue and much of American customs.

Tomorrow Mr. Dietrick will call at the state department, where he will present some matters regarding conditions in Nicaragua. He says the report that England will send a warship to Nicaragua to force that country to look after the wants of the Mosquito Indians is absurd, that the Indians have not been mistreated but have merely been neglected by Nicaragua and permitted to roam where they cared to.

ACT NOT ON THE BILL.

Super at Grand Opera House Was for the Moment Carried Away.

Sherman's famous utterance as to war, and its consequent wear and tear on the nervous system, was demonstrated in a remarkable manner at the Grand Opera house last night during the action of Bronson Howard's war drama, "Shenandoah." A number of super soldiers are employed in the battle scene, among them some men who have seen active service in the late Cuban war. During the third act when Mr. Ingersoll and Miss Taylor were going through a passionate love scene, one of the soldiers who had been watching the play from the wings suddenly rushed out before the footlights and leveled his rifle at Mr. Ingersoll with the wild exclamation, "Hands up; leave that woman!"

Terrified with fear, Miss Taylor and Mr. Ingersoll retreated to the rear of the stage, casting appealing looks for help to Stage Director Huffman. In an instant the entire company, awaiting their cue in the wings, took in the situation. Mr. Martin and Mr. McVay rushed on the stage without attracting the attention of the man and pinioned his arms, at the same time dragging him back of the scenes.

The audience for the most part were cognizant of something unusual, but some of them took it for part of the performance. Back of the stage, however, consternation reigned. The super was made a prisoner. Dr. McKelvy was summoned and inquiry as to the stricken man's identity revealed his name to be Harry Sohl of 5217 Powhattan street, whither he was sent by Manager Harry Davis in a carriage, accompanied by one of the theater attendants. It was a case of temporary aberration.

Reception to Pastor.

The congregation of the Ninth United Presbyterian church of Allegheny last night gave a reception to the Rev. T. C. McKelvey and Mrs. McKelvey, in the church parlors. The Rev. Mr. McKelvey recently accepted the pastorate of the Ninth church, succeeding the Rev. Dr. J. R. J. Milligan, now pastor of the First church of Cleveland, O. The Rev. Mr. McKelvey was formerly pastor of the Thirteenth United Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh.

MAN ROBBED IN STREET AT POINT OF TOY PISTOL

John Foster of Mt. Lebanon Had His Hands Up When Policemen Arrested Highwaymen.

For playing highwaymen with a toy pistol, James Powell of 23 Magee street and Angelo Serisaruse, an Italian of Fifth avenue, were arrested at Second avenue and Grant street last night by Special Officers Dillon and Dunn, while holding up John Foster of Mt. Lebanon.

"Take my money, but don't kill me," were the cries heard by the officers.

On investigation they found Foster with his hands over his head, Powell in the act of going through his pockets and the Italian pointing a toy pistol at Foster's head.

The three men were taken to Central station. Powell and his Italian companion got five cents from Foster and overlooked $150 he had in his inside vest pocket. Powell is 23 years old and Serisaruse is 19.

Absolute safety is the policy of this bank, and it is being rigidly adhered to. Safety first, liberality next. Pittsburgh Bank for Savings, Smithfield street and Fourth avenue. Established 1862.

Mary B. Mullet has, in Ainslee's for May, a particularly clever and interesting story, the scene of which is laid in the famous Parisian resort, Maxim's. It is called "The Report from Maxim's," and purports to give an account of the experiences there of an American club woman.

MILLINERY DOLLARS
The Dollars saved to buyers by our recent price pruning—and their appreciation—proves we made a wise move, though so decidedly contrary to all existing rules of Millinery merchandising.
We believe the price counts at all times, and when we want Millinery moved, the beginning of the season is as good time to cut prices as any other—if not better.
Today you'll get
$10.00 and $11.00 Hats for $ 8.50
$12.00 and $13.00 Hats for $10.00
$14.00 and $15.00 Hats for $12.00
$25.00 and $26.00 Hats for $20.00
And they're all choice New Hats.
Our very best Hats are cut in price.
Special values in Dressy Trimmed Hats—$3.50 and $5.00.

B. & B.
CHILDREN'S SHOES
Girls' and Boys' can get the extreme of Shoe satisfaction here, and parents will find that expenditure somewhat lessened thereby.
We sell the best Shoes we can get—that means the best made—sell them at small profit prices.
Prices $1.00 to $3.00.
Will you look at what we offer for $1.50?
Ladies' Oxfords—Tan and Black, $2.50 to $6.00.
If you'll see these $2.50 Oxfords you'll learn something.
Men's Shoes, high cut and low cut—Tan and Black, $3.50
Lots of others and other prices, but this is where we make good good and strong.

B. & B.
BETTER CLOTHING
Men who have an idea they can't be fitted in ready to wear Clothing are invited to come here and try on some.
We devote a lot of attention to sizes and proportions—such combinations of measurements as assure every man complete satisfaction, no matter how he's built.
Another thing is the variety—all that vast sea of Clothing is New Clothing—and it's better Clothing.
You'll know sure enough what we mean by Better Clothing when you investigate it—quality, strength, style and color of materials—and the Tailoring.
Men's single and double-breasted Sack Suits, $15.00 to $35.00.
Twenty Dollars is the price we harp on—neither too high nor too low for the greatest number of buyers.
Better Clothing at that price than has ever been sold—your approbation proves that.
Spring Top Coats, $10.00 to $35.00.
Tailored Rain Coats, $15.00 to $30.00.

B. & B.
TAN COATS, $18.50
We think the tailors who made these garments are clearly entitled to a medal of distinction.
We never saw Coats so well tailored at any such money, nor can we understand how it's accomplished unless they have learned a new knack that we know not of.
Fine tailoring is careful tailoring and careful tailoring takes time and time has to be paid for.
If we had to pay as much for the tailoring of these, as they look they ought to be worth, the price couldn't be less than five or six dollars more.
See them if something fine at a price interests you.
New Tan Covert Coats, $5.00 to $25.00.
Rain Coats, $10.00 to $35.00.
Remarkably smart looking and decidedly good Rain Coats for women, $16.50

ROOSEVELT WINS MASSACHUSETTS

Warm Praise for President in Platform Adopted by State Convention.

LODGE DOWNS RECIPROCITY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

BOSTON, April 15.—Canadian reciprocity and Eugene Foss, its foremost champion in this section of New England, were decisively defeated today in the Republican state convention called to elect four delegates-at-large to the Republican national convention at Chicago.

Mr. Foss who, before the convention, had announced his intention of offering a reciprocity resolution and of contesting as a candidate for delegate-at-large on this issue, carried out his plan. His resolution was overwhelmingly voted down, and he was rejected as a delegate by a vote of 178 to 1,161 for his nearest contestant.

At a time when, to all appearances, a considerable sentiment in the convention was with Mr. Foss, Senator Lodge took the platform and by an eloquent address stemmed the tide and carried the delegates with him.

Mr. Foss, in offering his resolution, argued that the Republican party in Massachusetts was in danger of defeat unless something was done to save it. He said that a decrease of 5 per cent in the Republican vote of the state would place it in the Democratic column, and he contended that Canadian reciprocity would avert this danger. When he concluded he was accorded applause, hearty and prolonged.

Lodge Won Fight.

Senator Lodge, supporting the platform reported by the resolution committee of the convention, urged harmony, and before he had been speaking a great while the audience was cheering at almost every sentence.

When the chairman called for a vote on the substitution of Mr. Foss' reciprocity plank, a few scattered voices declared in favor of the substitution, but when the vote of those opposed was called a thunderous "No" shook the walls of the auditorium. Immediately afterward the original platform was adopted.

The following were chosen: Delegates-at large, ex-Gov. W. Murray Crane, Senator Lodge, ex-Secretary John D. Long, Col. E. C. Benton; alternates, chosen by acclamation, Grafton D Cushing of Boston; Arthur B. Daniels of Adams; Frank B. Stevens of New Bedford, and Walter B. Hopkins of Newburyport.

The platform adopted by the convention insists on the maintenance of the tariff with some possible changes, and heartily indorses President Roosevelt. In conclusion the platform says:

Praise for Roosevelt.

The Republicans of Massachusetts give their hearty and loyal indorsement to the administration of Theodore Roosevelt. Called to that high office under the most trying circumstances, he assumed its responsibilities and performed its duties in full accord with its best traditions. His straightforward, manly and sincere course has commanded the cordial support of all the people.

At a time when it almost seemed as though law had ceased to be effective and legislation had reached its limit in the great coal crisis of 1902-3, actuated by pure and patriotic motives, and desirous only of the public good, he brought all the power of his great office and all the strength of his vigorous manhood to the solution of that problem, and successfully invoked the principle of arbitration and mutual concession to settle the impending strike and avert general suffering among the people.

His forceful and energetic administration of our public affairs, his wise and patriotic methods of dealing with great and difficult national problems, mark him as equal to his responsibilities and faithful to his obligations. Fearless in the discharge of his duty, with an eye single to the public welfare, a representative of the highest ideals in American manhood, he may be assured that Republican Massachusetts will give him her full confidence and support, not only in the national convention in Chicago, but in the election in November next.

LITCHFIELD, ILL., April 15.—The Republican convention of the Twenty-first Illinois district today nominated Zeno J. Rives of Litchfield for congress. Theodore Kock of Macoupin county and H. N. Schuyler of Christian county were chosen delegates to the national convention and instructed to vote for the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 15.—The Westinghouse interests have secured contracts for the complete electrical equipment of two more large Welsh collieries. The contract calls for a big power and lighting installation in the pits of the South Medomsley colliery, and the other is for the electrification of the Gwendreath Valleys Anthracite Company's plant.

Sir Hiram Maxim Electrical Engineering Company has placed a large order for gas engines and generators with the Westinghouse people, and Frank Suter and Company, Limited, another big British engineering concern has given them a contract for three good-sized producer gas engines to be direct connected to generators in the enlarged plant of the Walthams town municipal electric traction system, where 10 Westinghouse gas engines are already installed.

The Greenock, Scotland, Corporation has ordered a fair-sized Westinghouse generating set. The South London Electric Supply Corporation has requisitioned for 18 Westinghouse transformers, and the Coventry Corporation has ordered 12 machines for the same type. The Islington (London) municipal authorities have contracted for a 12-months' supply of Westinghouse electricity meters. The Aberdeen Gas and Electric Lighting committee has accepted the tender of the Westinghouse people for a large generating set.

The British Columbia Electric Railway Company is to install a 1,000 k. w generator in its gold stream hydraulic plant located near Victoria, B. C.

The aggregate value of the before-mentioned contracts is close on to $1,500,000.

SPIKED ANCIENT RUMOR.

Alleged Swallowing of Westinghouse Airbrake by Smaller Concern Denied.

The annual spring rumor that the New York Airbrake Company has swallowed up the Westinghouse Air Brake Company, mainly through the maneuver of securing the stock held by Charles M. Schwab, who never held any Airbrake stock, made its appearance yesterday.

On the other side appeared the formal denial, which spikes the rumor each year. Robert Pitcairn, vice president of the company, and Walter P. Uptegraff, secretary to George Westinghouse, made the denial yesterday. Mr. Pitcairn said that the origin of the rumor seems to be from the same source each time.

JOHN LEE'S HARD LUCK.

A Chinese Laundryman Robbed and Wounded and Will Probably Die.

John Lee, a Chinese laundryman in West Railroad avenue, Oakmont, woke up at 1 o'clock yesterday morning to find three burglars in his place. They had bound him and wanted to know where he kept his money. He told them where to find $10, but they would not believe that was all the money he had. Because he could give up no more they beat him and finally struck him on the head with a cleaver, laying open his scalp and nearly severing his queue.

Lee was not discovered until the afternoon, when he had lost a quantity of blood, and is now expected to die. He has previously been held up and robbed three times.

BAILEY SAYS HE IS A SPOILSMAN

Texas Senator Declares He Has No Sympathy With Civil Service.

PANAMA CANAL BILL PASSED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, April 15.—After a day devoted to routine proceedings the senate was treated to a spirited speech by Mr. Bailey just before adjournment on the question of civil service. The subject came up in connection with a paragraph in the sundry civil appropriation bill. Mr. Bailey announced in plain terms that he had no sympathy with the "iridescent dream" of civil service. He declared that each party should control the patronage while in power and avowed himself a spoilsman.

Mr. Hale was in accord with much that Mr. Bailey said, but added that congress could not be induced to change the law, even though convinced that it should be changed.

The Panama canal bill occupied the major portion of the day and was passed without division. Mr. Spooner made a vigorous speech in support of the bill and was replied to by Mr. Morgan. The civil service appropriation bill was taken up.

The postoffice appropriation bill was referred to a conference committee, Messrs. Penrose, Dolliver and Culberson being named as conferees on the part of the senate.

The senate passed a joint resolution ordering the printing of 10,000 copies of the report of the anthracite coal strike commission.

B. & O. AND N. & W. MAKE BIG ADDITION TO DEBT

Two Railroads Give Notes for $12,000,000—Transaction in New York.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
Press Building,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., April 15.

The Baltimore & Ohio and the Norfolk & Western Railroad companies today borrowed $12,000,000 between them. These two railroads are closely associated with the Pennsylvania railroad.

The securing of such a large sum of money has attracted considerable attention. For some days it has been rumored that the Baltimore & Ohio was going to sell bonds. This report has been emphatically denied by officers of the company. Instead of the bonds, notes were used. The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, it was said on the street, has a larger loan still pending.

The money is to be used to retire $2,500,000 of Staten Island railroad bonds and $500,000 of subsidiary bonds. Some of the money is to be used for corporate expenses, and the remainder for improvements in and around Washington.

The Baltimore & Ohio loan is to run two years and the notes will bear 4½ per cent interest. They were sold to Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and Speyer & Co. It is said they have all been sold by the syndicate which took them. These notes are secured by Reading Company second preferred stock.

There seems to be a difference of opinion in regard to the money secured by the Norfolk & Western Railroad Company. At the office of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company it was said that the Norfolk & Western Railway Company had sold $2,000,000 car trust certificates which had been in the treasury of the company. Arrangements for the sale of these certificates had been made some weeks ago and an opportune time was sought to get rid of them.

THREE PERSONS KILLED IN A RAILROAD WRECK

Runaway Train While Speeding at 100 Miles an Hour Collided With Another.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

SCRANTON, PA., April 15.—Three lives were lost in a disastrous railroad wreck on the Wyoming Valley division of the Erie railroad at Rock Junction, four miles east of here, today. A section of a coal train consisting of 15 loaded cars, broke loose on the steep grade at Wimmers and ran back a distance of 11 miles, colliding with two locomotives which were drawing another coal train up the steep grade at Rock Junction. Four of the cars jumped over both locomotives and landed on the coal cars behind. Frank Hanneford, the fireman of the first engine, was crushed to death, and Thomas Kelly, the engineer remained on the engine and was uninjured. The engineer and fireman of the second engine jumped from the cab before the crash came and escaped with slight injuries.

At Elmhurst the runaway section struck and killed Thomas Ward and Samuel Treible, section men who were working on the track. The men were horribly mangled. It is stated that the runaway section had attained a speed of 100 miles an hour when it collided with the two locomotives. The two locomotives and 20 coal cars were destroyed in the wreck. The railroad's loss is estimated at $100,000.

RODGERS DECIDES AGAINST CITY

West Enders Lose Fight With Railroad Over an Old Thoroughfare.

ARMED TO REPEL INVASION

Independence street, Thirty-fifth ward, formerly the old Washington turnpike, which years ago was the leading public highway into Pittsburgh, traveled over by many famous men, has been given up by the city to the West Side Belt line, after a controversy between the residents in the thoroughfare and the railroad company. This action has been taken without an ordinance vacating the street and was done upon the advice of City Solicitor William B. Rodgers, after the public works department had interfered to prevent the street being closed.

The West Side Belt Line Railroad Company started several days ago to build an extension along Independence street for about 700 feet, which is to branch off from the street and run through the rear of private property about the same distance to the Temperanceville station, where it will connect with the Panhandle railroad. The West Side Belt line now uses the tracks of the Saw Mill Run railroad through the Thirty-fifth ward, from the city limits, parallel with Independence street. It connects with the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad on the Monongahela river bank.

Vigilance Committee Appointed.

The new extension, to connect with the Panhandle, turns to the right of the present line, and in order to make the curve it is necessary to occupy a portion of Independence street and then cut through about 25 pieces of private property fronting in the street. The owners of this property are up in arms and refuse to allow the railroad to go through their property. They have appointed a vigilance committee to stay up at nights to prevent the railroad from stealing a march on them under cover of darkness. More than one resident has a shotgun or rifle loaded and any railroad employe who attempts to lay a track on his property will do so at his peril.

The residents of Independence street went to the city hall in a body Tuesday and remonstrated against the railroad invading the street preparatory to entering their property. Director E. M. Bigelow was out of the city and they stated the case to Supt. E. G. Nicewaner of the bureau of highways and sewers.

Decided Against the City.

Supt. Nicewaner took prompt action and arrived on the scene to stop the company taking possession of the street just as a small riot was in progress between the railroad laborers and the residents of the locality. The railroad company stopped work upon the order of the city officials and the matter was submitted to the city solicitor in the absence of Mayor William B. Hays and Director Bigelow.

The railroad was again at work on the street yesterday aand another delegation of West End citizens went to the city hall. They were shown a communication from Solicitor Rodgers stating that the city had no legal title to the street and that the railroad company had a deed to it from the original owner, Adolph Oberhelman. The property had been transferred by Oberhelman to the Six Mile Run Railroad Company and by it to the West Side Belt company.

The Washington turnpike, of which Independence street is a part, was owned by a private corporation which built the highway about 80 years ago. The corporation disbanded about 30 years ago and Oberhelman, who was one of the stockholders in the corporation, claimed the sole ownership. He so exercised his alleged ownership by collecting toll on the turnpike.

Called at City Hall.

In 1887 the Pittsburgh councils passed an ordinance locating Independence street on the turnpike, from Carson street southwardly for a mile and a half to the city line, and until this week it has always been supposed that this was a city thoroughfare and could not be closed without the sanction of the city.

The West Side residents were notified yesterday that the city could not interfere with the railroad company and the company's employes proceeded to fill in the street to lay its tracks upon. The property owners are not satisfied and declare they do not intend to give up so easily. They intend to present the matter to Director Bigelow and also to councils, and if they get no relief in those quarters they will wait until the railroad reaches their property and an attempt is made to lay tracks upon it. Then another outbreak is likely to occur.

The property owners say the company offers them each only $50 for 25 feet of the rear end of their lots, and gave one owner only $250 for his kitchen, which the road will cut off, but gave him nothing for the balance of the house.

STEEL CORPORATION GETS FOREIGN CONTRACT

Pittsburgh Mills Will Supply Equipment for New Zealand Railway.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 15.—The United States Steel Corporation has secured the valuable contracts for the rails, cables, etc., to be used in the construction of the Municipal electric traction system in Christchurch, New Zealand, and vicinity. While the award for the complete construction and equipment of the lines was made in favor of a local concern, practically all the material, equipment, etc., will be manufactured in the United States.

The New Zealand Electric Construction Company, which was organized recently for the chief purpose of developing the water powers in New Zealand, will carry out the work of building the Christchurch lines. Somewhat more than 30 miles of road will be constructed under the existing contract. The value of the contract is $2,500,000, approximately. Christchurch has a population of about 50,000. It is built on a dead level. The present lines are mostly operated by steam. The Canterbury Tramway Company runs an eight-mile road to Sumner. Another line goes to Sunnyside and another runs to Porthill Lydenham—all suburbs of Christchurch. In the city proper about 10 miles of steam and horse lines are operated. The municipal authorities have acquired all these systems and they will be electrically converted.

Pittsburgh mills will roll the 4,330 tons of 92-pound girder rails and 47[illegible] tons of 95-pound ones. Three hundred and fifty-five tons of 73-pound T rails have all been ordered from the Steel Corporation. The Lorain Steel Company branch of the Corporation will manufacture the special points and crossings, and the American Steel and Wire division will turn out all the cables for the New Zealand system.

WOOL DYED WITH JELLY.

Chemical and Commercial Properties of a Dainty for the Table.

Dyeing wool with currant jelly was an experiment shown last night by Dr. H. C. Stiefel in Homestead, during his lecture on "Industrial Chemistry" in the Carnegie Technical school's course. Dr. Stiefel explained the difference between mechanical and chemical technology in the fact that the mechanical changes only the form, while the chemical alters both form and composition from the raw product.

"Wood," said the speaker, "is changed mechanically into furniture and into implements, changing only in shape, while by a chemical application it becomes wood alcohol pulp, creasote and other substances of other forms than the raw material. Corn becomes corn starch, corn oil, glucose, while the fiber and hulls are reduced to cattle food. Every trace is reduced to marketable commodities. Iron ore is extracted chemically and changes in form into sulphate of iron, an ink-making material, chloride of iron, Prussian blue and a salt used for blue-print making."

The speaker gave demonstrations of ink making, Prussian blue making, and showed how alleged pure jellies were made and how easily the coloring can be [illegible] and applied as a dye.

MRS. MARTIN TO GET A DIVORCE

Will of Wealthy McKeesport Man Probated—Another Appeal in Thiel College Case.

SUPERIOR COURT APPEALS

Mrs. Ray Taylor Vantine Martin has secured the masters recommendation for a decree in her suit for divorce, in which she charges her husband, Alva N. Martin, with infidelity. The charges against Martin were based on two events, one where he registered at a downtown hotel, in company with a woman, as "A. N. Martin and wife, Balto., Md.," and the other an episode in which "Martha," a young woman who manicured his nails, figured prominently.

Three traction cases were before the superior court yesterday on appeal from Allegheny county courts. In two of the cases compulsory non-suits had been granted and the plaintiffs carried them up and in the third a non-suit was refused and the company is the appellant. They were Pittsburgh Iron Paint Company vs. the United Traction Company for the value of a team; Barnes Bros. vs. the Pittsburgh Railways Company, for the value of a horse killed in Hawkins avenue; James Reid vs. the United Traction Company, for personal injuries in which Reid secured a $1,000 verdict.

The will of Amanda S. W. Agnew, late of Sewickley, has been probated and shows a disposition on the part of the decedent to provide well for unmarried daughters or daughter. The estate is valued at $17,000. The decedent first appoints the Fidelity Title and Trust Company trustee. She then instructs that the trustee shall let the daughters or daughter unmarried have what they want without order of orphans or any other court.

The will of C. R. Stuckslayer, late of McKeesport, has been probated. Bequests are made of $10,000 to the missionary cause of the Methodist Episcopal church, $5,000 to the McKeesport hospital, $5,000 to Lula Thomas, a granddaughter, and $1,000 to Cyrus Crubaugh, a grandson. The wife is left the portion allowed by law and the decedent's interest in the Market street homestead, also household effects. He refers to her as "my true and faithful wife." The residue is left to his six children, "Harry, Florence, Sarah, Helen, Eleanor and the babe." The value of the estate is given as $300,000 personalty and $100,000 realty.

An appeal has been taken to the supreme court in the Mercer county suit of John P. Packard and others against Thiel college and others. The appeal has been tranferred to the Philadelphia district.

BOY SUSPECTS ARE HELD.

Four Youths Charged With Numerous House Robberies in Carnegie.

Four boys, whose ages range from 17 to 19 years, were held for court yesterday by Justice A. W. McMillan of Carnegie, on charges of burglary. They are Albert Carson, Albert Aspinwall, James Ryman and Floyd McKindley. Carson and Aspinwall were brought back from Terre Haute, Ind. The two others were arrested in Carnegie yesterday. Nine persons testified against the boys, among whom were the Rev. J. F. Snodgrass, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Carnegie, and the Rev. J. O. Jones, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Their houses were robbed last autumn. Beginning last November, many dwellings were entered through transoms. Only two stores were entered—the wholesale liquor store of Basil Montecello, and the furnishing house of P. J. Moorehead. Plunder from a bottle of beer to a gold watch, and sums of money from $4 to $40, were secured. Mary Woodson, a negress employer at the residence of C. M. The slide is considered the worst in recent history and probably will delay traffic 48 hours at the least. Ten trains are stalled as a result of the slide and fully 900 passengers are on the ground.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. LOUIS, April 15.—In an opening contest, which had everything that the American league debut of yesterday lacked, Pittsburgh played the national game from start to finish today, defeating the Cardinals 5 to 4 before a crowd of 7,000 which was present in the face of the opening of two race tracks and weather which was just cold enough to make the grandstand occupant uncomfortable without seriously handicapping the efforts of the players.

The game offered about everything to be found in the baseball calendar, and, though not so close as the final score would indicate, furnished plenty of opportunity for the home enthusiasts to stir things up, though the Mound City aggregation was never able to tie the score or take proper advantage of the golden opportunities.

The loyal enthusiasm of the crowd and the ginger and life which pervaded the game made it different as day is from night in comparison with the listless affair between the Browns and Detroits yesterday. The best tribute to the Pittsburgh game and to the ever steady Phillippe as well is found in the margin of five hits which, though combined with plenty of luck, was yet insufficient to return a victory for the home team.

Pittsburgh was there at every stage of the game, never once even hesitating in steady, convincing play, and, though errors were made, they were not costly, and only one resulted in a run. On the other hand, the Browns were never able to seriously damage the Deacon's delivery at the semi-critical stages and were far distanced by Pittsburgh in heady playing of the game, while the one error made by Burke in the second inning was more costly than all of Pittsburgh's errors combined. Though it cost three runs, one at least would have been scored by Pittsburgh any way, and on the merits of the game Pittsburgh should have won without the gifts.

Frank De Haas Robinson and Barney Dreyfuss, who saw much of each other at Hot Springs, occupied a box together, while other Pittsburghers who enjoyed the contest were Uncle Al Pratt, Andy Fulton, Director Scandrett of Allegheny's department of public safety, Squire W. D. Mansfield, McKeesport; C. C. Boehmer and James Orris. About half of the party left for home tonight, while the others will stay for the series.

Sam Leever, Scanlon, Pfiester and Smith came in from Hot Springs this morning. There is a desire among the team for Leever to go in for a game here, but he says, though he could try it, he thinks he will be serving the club best to take it slowly until warmer weather. Some of the players claim that Sam is foxy and that he should be made to take his share of the work.

It was at the critical stage of the game, undyingly fought for by the crowd from start to finish, when Byers, the favorite hitter of the home squad, opened on the Deacon with a nice single to left. The Cardinals were but one behind, and the crowd was on its feet rooting, but Taylor, the second man up, instead of bunting, smashed the ball and was out to Sebring. Farrell rapped out a single to right, while a good throw of Sebring enabled Wagner to hold Byers close to second. Farrell was forced, Phillippe to Wagner on Shannon's life, while Byers went to third on the play. There was a good chance for some base running, but Smoot gave his partners not a chance, and, smashing at the first ball up, was out on a clean play from Leach to Bransfield. The crowd went out reasoning how they should have won the finish.

The crowd was at first inclined to roast the Pirates, reminding them of the loss of the series to Boston last fall with cries of "Yellow!" The unyielding character of the Pirates' work at times, when there were good opportunities for balloon ascensions, effectually quelled the demonstration, however, while the star play of the game and of many games made by Wagner, induced some rooters to remark that if he was yellow they would like to have some of the color in the Cardinals.

Shannon was on third and Smoot on second, with one out, when Beckley sent a foul tip far back of third. Leach and Wagner were racing after it in a confusing tangle, when a roar of applause told that Wagner had held the ball, though many thought it shot through his hands. Hans was only half through with his exhibition, however, and, turning with a half jerk, gave the ball a mighty underhand toss to Phelps, but just too late to catch Shannon at the plate. Shay, who played a nice game at short for St. Louis, got away with a beautiful running catch from Phelps' bat in the ninth, but all the shining features of the game were dimmed by Wagner's great effort.

Pittsburgh took the lead in the first, when Beaumont hit for three bases and scored when Leach flied out to right. In the second Bransfield made a hit, and Sebring, who drew the only base on balls of the game, were advanced by Ritchey's sacrifice and scored when Burke, after fumbling Phelps' bingle, threw wild to first. Phelps scored on Phillippe's fly to center, and Beau struck out, leaving the score 4 to 0. St. Louis had two on bases with two out in the second, but quick fielding of Taylor's hit to center caught him at second, Wagner to Ritchey.

Pittsburgh did not score again until the eighth, but in the seventh the side was retired by the calling out of Phelps for cutting second on Beaumont's two-bagger. The Cardinals were lucky to get a run in the fourth, when Barclay would have retired the side at the plate but for Wagner's drop of Clarke's strong return of Byers' hit to left. Shay again reduced the lead in the eighth, scoring on his single, steal of second, and a hit of Burke to right. Miller will likely pitch tomorrow. The score:

THE OPENING GAME FROM A WOMAN'S POINT OF VIEW

Admired the Pirates Physically, but Is Down on New Rule Which Prevents Presenting of Flowers, and the Umpire's Blouse.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. LOUIS, April 15.—Of course I was delighted to see our own champions make so brave a start for another pennant today when they visited St. Louis, and in the face of thousands of men and women, who, over-eager for their own boys to win, trounced the baseball team of the World's Fair city.

Captain Clarke and his valiant warriors were just as frisky as lambs, and Tommy Leach, when he picked up hot grounders and tossed them to the amplitudinous and triangular Wagner, was just as cute as he ever was on our own diamond in old Pittsburgh. Then there was Beaumont and "Kitty" Bransfield and all those other ball players who have made Pittsburgh famous.

One of the new rules this year will never prove popular in Pittsburgh. This stops all presentation of flowers to players during actual play. Somebody had a great bunch of American Beauties made into a mountainous bouquet and before the game gave them to Captain Clarke. If the woman who sent that bouquet was in that grandstand and saw how those flowers were handled she was perfectly justified in "rooting" for the St. Louisans. Mr. Clarke laid them down on the bench and some broad-shouldered Pirate leaned callously back on them.

Philippe, who is called the old reliable in Pittsburgh, was in good form, and of course he won his opening game. A man sitting next to me said that the deacon's curves were beautiful. I was glad to hear this, for I was admiring the splendid figure of this Adonis of the diamond, and was glad to see that my judgment was approved by a real man fan. Even if Wagner is a bit ungainly and his countenance not likely to win any gold medals in a beauty show, I thought he was simply perfect when he ran away back in deep left near the howling bleachers and pulled down Burke's hit among the clouds.

All the boys made brilliant plays, but to me the feature of the game was the cunning blouse worn by Umpire O'Day. Though there was dearth of material when this unique garment was planned, even the Palais d'Costume on the dike at the World's fair won't show anything more fearfully and wonderfully made.

It was dreadfully cold, and the 7,000 spectators shivered despite the excitement. One brilliant play followed another so quickly and the score was so close that the result was in doubt until the last man was out. The Pirates were out-batted, but superior fielding and the same team work that has landed the championship at Pittsburgh for three successive years made up for their deficiency with the willow. Taylor, for the Cardinals, pitched a splendid game, and Shay, at short, is assuredly a find.

FOUGHT TO A DRAW.

CINCINNATI, April 15.—Darkness put an end to the Cincinnati-Chicago game today after 10 innings had been played without a decision being reached. Prospective encounters between the two teams over the alleged intentional injuring of Huggins by Evers and the subsequent upset of Evers by Dolan went no further than words. Neither man was sufficiently hurt to discontinue the game. Attendance 1,800. Score:

NEW YORK, April 15.—Brooklyn met defeat for the second time at the hands of the New York team in Brooklyn today. Although outbatted, the New Yorks supported their pitcher in better style. HIGH SCHOOL RELAY TEAM CHOSEN FOR RACE

Braddock High School Beats Allegheny—South Side Loses to East Liberty.

The Pittsburgh High school relay team that will race at Philadelphia, Saturday, April 23, in the relay meet under the auspices of the University of Pennsylvania, will be composed of the following, who were the first six men past the tape in yesterday's tryout at Schenley park: Duncan Worrell, captain; Marion Steen, George Thompson, Eugene Dowling, Guy Halferty and Paul Johns.

Twenty-five candidates lined up for the state of the quarter-mile, and all were in the finish save Tom Owens, who was badly spiked early in the race. He was regarded as a sure man of making the team. The quarter was run in 0:58 on a heavy track. Frank Jarvis, who assisted in the race, pronounced the time very good considering the condition of the track. This race was considered the best way of picking the men for the team.

The Braddock High school nine won its second game of the season yesterday, beating the Allegheny High school in a loosely-played contest on the latter's field, 14 to 9. Hyslop, Verasky and Williams for Braddock and Snamen and Dillinger for Allegheny did the best work. The score:

The East Liberty academy nine won a practice game from the South Side High school yesterday afternoon at D. C. & A. C. park, 6 to 1. Six innings were played, Bailey pitching five for East Liberty and Coyle one. Bailey allowed one run and three hits, two of which were scatches. Burnside pitched a nice game for South Side, but received poor support. Burnside scored the only run for his team. Carr, Moffett and Lytle led in the hitting. The score:

STAYED THE LIMIT.

The Australia's Champion Proves to Be a Clever Boxer.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., April 15.—(Special.)—Arthur Cripps, the reputed middleweight champion of Australia, stayed the prescribed six rounds with Jack Williams in the windup at the Southern Athletic club tonight. Cripps, outside of the third round, put up a good bout, and with a little better knowledge of the style of game should be a hard customer to beat.

He possesses a good, straight left jab and used a right-hand uppercut in the clinches tonight that had Jack very weary throughout the bout.

Westminster's Fine Relay Team.

NEW WILMINGTON, PA., April 15.—(Special.)—The relay team which Westminster college will send to Philadelphia to compete in the races to be held by the University of Pennsylvania April 23 is fast rounding into shape. No Mystery About Saving Real Money

Have you looked over your last year's suit and thought what a pity it was to throw it away when there is nothing the matter with it except that it is a little soiled?

It is really an extravagance to cast away clothing of the kind. It is folly to do so when, under the new process for cleaning and dyeing, the suit may be restored to its former newness.

This new process is in use by the E. J. Linnekin Company. This company has recently enlarged its plant in order to be able to handle the rapidly increasing business. The smoke and grime of Pittsburgh make it incumbent upon most people to have more or less cleaning and dyeing done every year. Just now this work is coming in in enormous lots. The enlarged plant of the Linnekin Company affords the great advantage to customers of getting their work done promptly.

Another great advantage is that the prices are much lower than those of other establishments. It is not necessary to pay the old-fashioned high prices for the same old-fashioned, badly done work.

The Linnekin Company turns out work that is perfectly done by means of the new process.

If your carpets or draperies need cleaning or dyeing, give them to the Linnekin Company and see how nicely the work can be done. Because your carpets are a little faded is no reason why they should be cast aside or made into rugs. The Linnekin Company can transform your carpets into bright, new carpets at very little expense to you. Your draperies may be colored to match. A whole room or the entire interior of a house may be "done over" in a most successful and pleasing manner.

If you think of having any of this kind of work done, drop a line to the Linnekin Company and they will have their representative call and give you an estimate of the cost.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 15.—The Carter handicap was the attraction that drew between 15,000 and 20,000 persons to Aqueduct today, when the Metropolitan racing opened in a fitting way. New Stores.
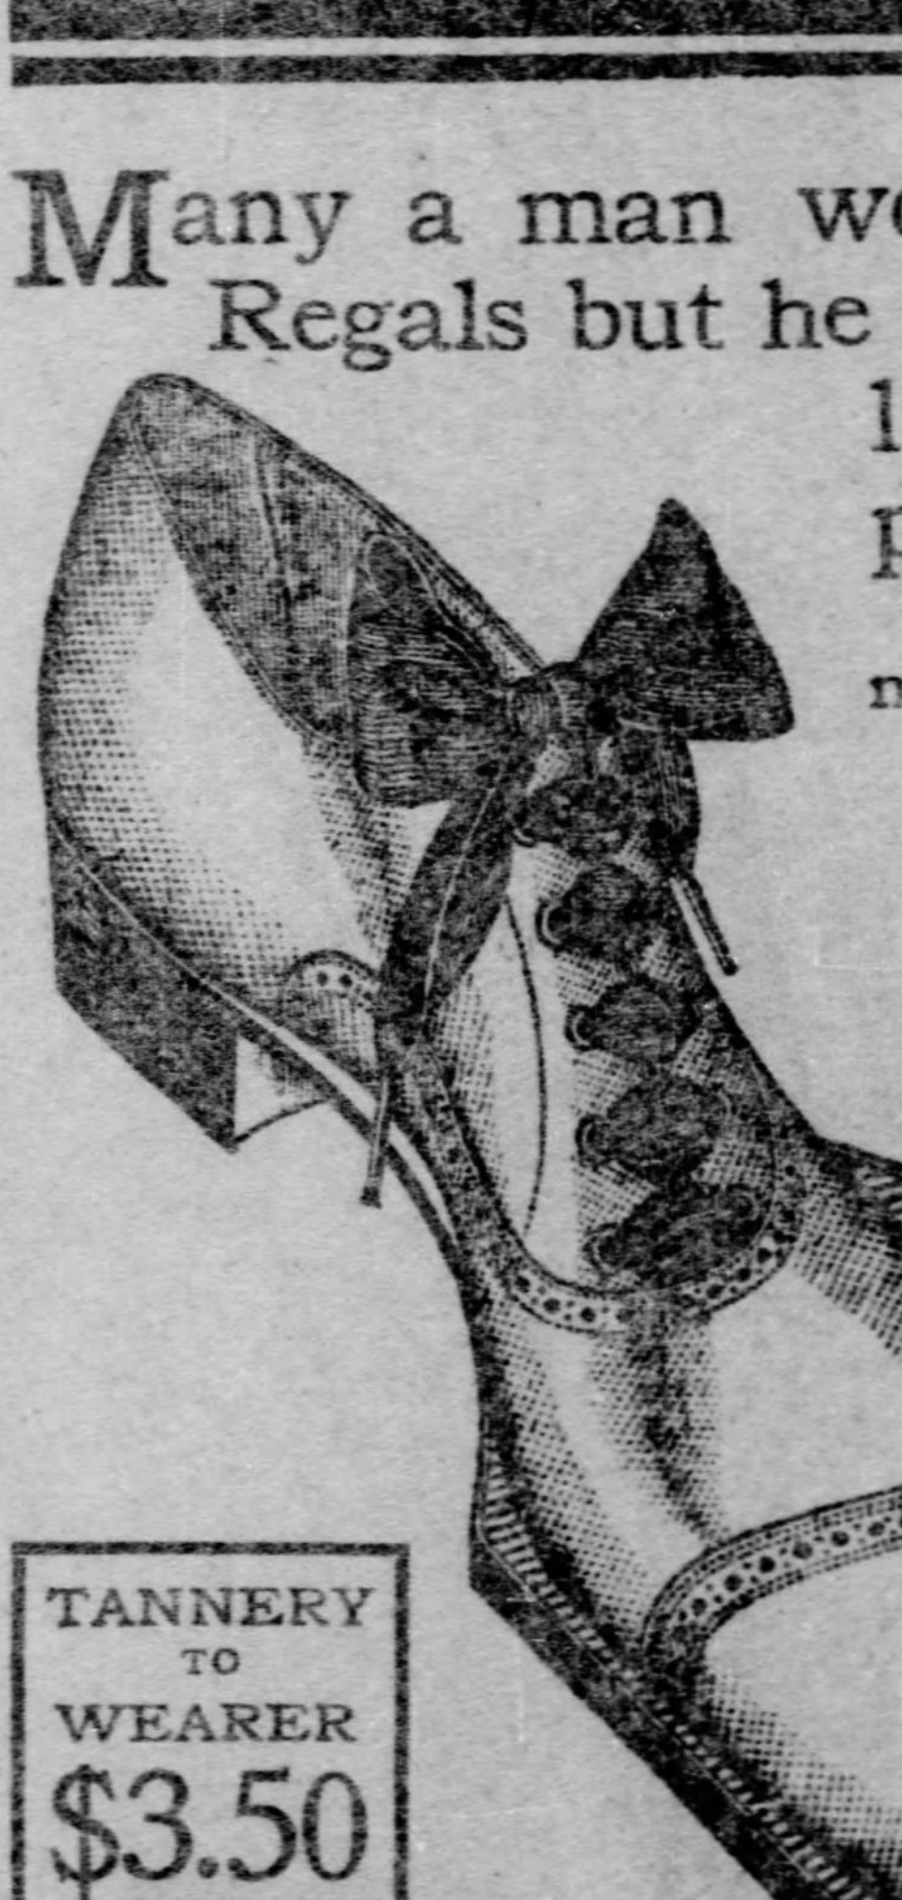
Wood St. and Fifth Ave.



Many a man would like to wear Regals but he hesitates to pay so little as $3.50 for a pair of shoes.

Doubtful about taking so much for so little?

Not at all. He's got a sort of semi-suppressed notion that he can't be really "swell" unless he pays from $5 to $14 for his shoes. Now, if he would ask the Pullman car porters, he would discover that a large proportion of those who ride in Pullmans, walk in Regals. And he may be astonished to learn that a clear majority of the officers in the U. S. Army and Navy are wearing Regals.

TANNERY TO WEARER $3.50

The trouble is that people get the idea that because the Regal sells at $3.50 it is a "$3.50 shoe,"—which it is not. It's a six-dollar shoe at the wholesale price,—a fact which we are prepared to demonstrate by a comparison of style, fit, finish and leather quality.

DULLEST DAY THIS WEEK IN NEW YORK STOCKS

Market Recovered from Early Depression and Closed Firm—Good Bank Statement Looked For. Crucible the Local Feature.

By JOHN C. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

Yesterday's New York stock market was the dullest of the week. The sales during the first two hours approximated 190,000 shares, and for the remainder of the day were less than 100,000 shares. London quotations were irregular, but there were no important changes. Then trading came to a standstill, but during the last half hour activity developed in a few specialties. All the early losses were recovered and the market finally closed firm. The net changes, however, were not important. Traders found it difficult to scalp even the smallest fraction out of the fluctuations, and finally gave up in disgust.

The only item of news having a bearing upon values was the announcement that the Baltimore & Ohio railroad had borrowed $10,000,000 on its notes for two years at 4½ per cent. There have been rumors for two weeks past that the company was contemplating a loan, but each time the report appeared it was denied. Yesterday formal acknowledgement was made that the loan had been placed with Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and Speyer & Co. Later in the day the notes were openly quoted in the market. Baltimore & Ohio stock declined less than 1 per cent on the announcement to 79⅛, subsequently recovered to 79⅞, and closed at 79¾ bid. It is not known to what use the proceeds of the loan will be put, but it was surmised that $2,500,000 of the total will be used to take up a like amount of Staten Island Rapid Transit bonds maturing in July, and the remainder will be used for authorized construction and equipment expenditures. Simultaneously with the announcement of this loan Wabash preferred became quite active and advanced to 39¼, while the debenture B bonds were active and higher. The possibility of the loan being for the purpose of acquiring from the Goulds the Western Maryland property was suggested, but did not receive much attention. The Goulds acquired this property in 1902, but recently there have been rumors that it would be turned over to Baltimore & Ohio as a condition precedent to a settlement of the feud between the Pennsylvania and Gould interests. While Wabash was advancing Pennsylvania declined, touching 117⅝, but there was no significance in the movement, apparently, and later in the day Wabash declined, while Pennsylvania recovered all its loss.

In the industrials as a rule the fluctuations were equally narrow. A half per cent covered the range in both Steel preferred and Amalgamated Copper, while the extremes in the Steel bonds were 78⅛ and 78½. The closing bids on these three leading issues were about midway between the highest and lowest. Consolidated Gas opened at 201, declined to 200 and rallied to 203½ on the final sale. This was the largest movement of the day, and had for its basis political rather than commercial developments.

A good bank statement is looked for today. The preliminary estimates indicate a gain of about $9,500,000, half of which was through the sub-treasury, on account of the transfer to New York of Japanese gold arriving at San Francisco. Call loans closed at 1 per cent bid, 1½ asked, the last loan being at 1¼ per cent. A London dispatch stated that some prominent financiers had been summoned to St. Petersburg from that market and Paris, which was responsible for rumors of a large Russian war loan to be floated in Paris. The latter market was reported to be a seller of international securities in London, due to the recent Russian reverses at Port Arthur, but the volume of this kind of business was not sufficient to be a factor in the general market.

Out of a total of 5,369 shares of stock handled on the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday, Crucible Steel furnished 4,254 shares. Pittsburgh Coal and Manufacturers Light and Heat contributed the bulk of the remainder. Crucible was strong, the common advancing to 5¾ and the preferred to 36⅝. The rise in the latter brought some profit-taking and caused a reaction to 35⅛, from which there was a recovery to 36¼ in the late dealings, the stock closing at 36¼. Manufacturers Light and Heat touched 30½, but closed slightly lower at 30¼ bid. Pittsburgh Coal preferred lost another small fraction, selling at 59¼ and closing at 59 bid. The common stock closed at 16 bid, 16½ asked, without sales. In the banking and trust company department, Bank of Pittsburgh and German American Savings and Trust advanced, while Equitable Trust and Industrial National Bank showed losses as compared with the last previous sales. North American Savings was unchanged at 110. There was nothing doing in bonds.

FEATURES OF THE DAY.

IN PITTSBURGH.

Bank clearings foot up $6,496,375, a decrease of $2,330,000.

Crucible furnished four-fifths of the total sales on the stock exchange.

The common advanced to 5¾ and the preferred to 36⅝.

Manufacturers Light and Heat sold at 30½ and closed at 30¼ bid.

Pittsburgh Coal preferred declined a fraction to 59½ and closed at 59 bid.

Better demand and firmer prices for bank and trust stocks.

IN WALL STREET.

Baltimore & Ohio borrows $10,000,000 on its notes at 4½ per cent.

The stock sold off a fraction, but recovered the loss.

Wabash preferred and debenture bonds were strong in the early dealings.

Pennsylvania declined to 117⅝, but later rallied and closed firm.

Steel preferred and Copper moved within a narrow range and closed steady.

Sales included 268,000 shares stock and $2,030,000 bonds.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

The rapid rise in Crucible Steel preferred has naturally tempted profit-taking by those who bought the stock from 5 to 10 points below current prices. There was a renewal of the buying on the reaction yesterday, however, and the market quickly recovered to within a fraction of the highest price. There was a renewal of the gossip yesterday of the probability of Jones & Laughlins taking an interest in the Clairton furnaces, but nothing of a reliable character developed.

Pittsburgh Coal preferred declined another fraction to 59½ and closed at 59 bid. Some disappointment is expressed by traders over the failure of the stock to advance on the declaration of the regular quarterly dividend, payable in cash instead of in scrip, but it was generally believed two weeks ago that such action would be taken, and it was on this belief that the stock advanced from 60 to 62½.

It was officially stated yesterday that Mr. Charles M. Schwab had never been a stockholder of record of Westinghouse Airbrake, and he could not, therefore, have sold enough of the stock to jeopardize local control of the company. The Wall street story that New York Airbrake interests had acquired sufficient Westinghouse stocks to be an important factor in the latter was pronounced entirely unfounded.

National Fire Proofing common declined a small fraction, but there were no sales of the preferred, which was quoted ex-dividend at 23½ bid.

Just before the close of the market Pittsburgh Plate Glass was bid up to 118½, and was offered at 125. There were no sales.

According to street rumor, a local trader caught short of Pittsburgh Coal and Crucible Steel was experiencing some difficulty in covering. The amount of the short interest in these two stocks has long been a disputed point, some brokers expressing the belief that it was small, while others maintained that the aggregate short sales would foot up a respectable figure.

Pittsburgh Coal dividend scrip continues in fair demand at 99 sales and bid.

Pittsburgh stock exchange seats were quoted at $7,000 bid, $9,000 asked.

Chartiers Valley Water was offered down to 19 without finding a buyer or bringing out a bid.

Asa P. Davis has been elected a member of the Pittsburgh stock exchange.

On June 9 stockholders of the Home Brewing Company of Braddock will vote upon a proposition to increase the capital from $500,000 to $600,000.

The gross earnings of New York Central for March decreased $186,662.

In the British house of commons Lord Stanley, the postmaster general, stated that negotiations were progressing between Mr. Marconi and the postoffice department, and that he hoped, later, to make a statement with regard to wireless telegraphy in general and the arrangement with Mr. Marconi in particular.

The Pacific Coast Company directors have declared the regular quarterly dividends of 1¼ per cent on the first preferred, second preferred and common stocks. The dividends are payable May 2.

The National Steel and Wire Company directors have declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on the preferred stock, payable to stock of record April 21.

The Central Oil Company has declared a dividend of 1 per cent (25 cents a share), payable May 2 to stock of record April 22.

The new B. & O. notes were quoted in Philadelphia at 99¾@100. The lowest price at which the bankers' syndicate is reported to have sold was 99¼.

A sale of 10 shares Allegheny National at 125. Hall to W. A. McCutcheon, was made after the close of the bank call, but too late to obtain official posting.

The buying of Erie was unexplained, but the existence of divided holdings in the stock by the same interests as those arrayed in the contest for the control of Northern Pacific revived some of the old rumors about the extension of the contest to Erie, which were in circulation at the time of the first contest in the northwest.

The week's currency movement indicates another extraordinary accumulation of cash at New York. The sub-treasury operations include both the payments for gold bars exported and for Japanese gold deposited in San Francisco, and have netted to the banks $5,168,000. Besides this the regular express movement with the interior has been heavily in favor of New York, estimates running to over $3,000,000. It is taken for granted that another large loan expansion has occurred, in view of the placing of a number of railroad note issues since the last bank statement appeared. Sterling exchange continued very firm, and it is considered probable that further gold will be exported at available opportunities. The exports of grain for the week show a falling off from last week of 640,000 bushels for wheat and 445,000 bushels for corn, indicating the contracted supply of commercial bills in the exchange market. The Bank of England policy in reducing the discount rate this week is believed to encourage the repayment of London obligations to Paris, and this would not relax the pressure on New York for gold to Paris. The London Statist said recently: "It is highly desirable that the immense amount of foreign money which has been employed in this market should be materially reduced. It is a dangerous thing for a market like that of London to be dependent to so great an extent as it has been for four or five years upon foreign moneys, which might have to be withdrawn at the most inconvenient time."

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

The zinc smelting plant of the Cherokee-Lanyon Spelter Company, recently burned at Iola, Kan., is being rebuilt on the old site. There are nine zinc smelters there, all using natural gas for fuel and smelting one-third of the zinc of the United States. Nearly all of them are enlarging their capacity and extending their gas land holdings.

The shipping record at Idaho Springs, Col., for the month of March shows a total of 155 cars of ore, thus breaking the record for any single month in the history of the district. The best month prior to this was March, 1902, when 148 cars were shipped.

The Croesus Company at Hailey, Idaho, is to construct modern reduction works to handle its milling grade of ore.

The sharp advance in the price of Uncle Sam Consolidated on the mining exchange at Salt Lake is acounted for in the tapping of a new body of high-grade ore in the property.

The management of the Giroux Consolidated Company of Ely, Nev., has decided to temporarily suspend operations in the shaft of the Alta at Pilot Knob and to begin work at once on a new double-compartment shaft on the Taylor mine.

The Oustomah mine at Grass Valley, Cal., has declared its first dividend of five cents per share, amounting to $12,500 on the 250,000 shares of capital stock.

The West Gold Hill Mining Company of Chaffee county, Col., has prepared plans and specifications for a 50-ton cyanide mill, to be erected on West Willow creek this season. Engineers estimate the ore in sight at more than 18,000 tons, having an average in excess of $10 a ton, which can be recovered by the cyanide process.

The Spearfish Gold Mining and Reduction Company at Spearfish, S. D., is working in ore that is 15 per cent better in grade than it was a year ago. Since January 1 the company has been engaged almost exclusively in prospecting work at the mine in connection with the advance of the exploratory drifts. Not a pound of ore has been stoped and it is the intention to continue prospecting work for several months. It is estimated that the ore in sight is sufficient to supply the mill for six years at its present operating capacity of nearly 300 tons a day.

Morris J. Duryea, secretary of the Mine La Motte Development Company, which has an 80-year lease on 400 acres of the Mine La Motte estate, has located in Fredrickstown, Mo., to superintend the construction of a concentrating plant which is to be erected on what is locally known as the "copper mine."

Operations at the Copper Glanco at Bisbee, Ariz., are shrouded in mystery. Those best acquainted with the situation expect little results until the diamond drill begins to operate in the drift under the Butte.

The first shipment of ore from Bowerman, Col., the newly-discovered Gunnison county mining camp, has reached Pueblo. It is said assays on the ore showed a value of more than $200.

The Metal Market.

NEW YORK, April 15.—There was a sharp advance in the London tin market, spot closing £1 2s 6d higher at £128, while futures were £1 higher at £127 15c. Locally, tin influenced by the firmness abroad, was quiet, but a little higher, closing at $27 80@28 25. Copper also was higher in London, advancing 5s to £58 2s 6d for spot and 2s 6d to £57 17s 6d for futures. Locally copper remains unchanged; lake is quoted at $13 25@13 62½, electrolytic at $13 12½@13 25 and casting at $12 87½@13 92½. Lead was 1s 3d higher in London at £12 7s 6d, but remained unchanged here at $4 60@4 65. Spelter was unchanged at $5 25@5 30 in New York and at £22 7s 6d in London. Iron closed at 52s 6d in Glasgow and at 44s 9d in Middlesboro. Locally iron was unchanged; No. 1 foundry northern is quoted at $15 25@15 75, No. 2 foundry northern at $14 75@15 25, No. 1 foundry southern and No. 1 foundry southern soft at $14 25@14 75.

FRESH BORROWING RESTRICTS BUSINESS

Stock Market Suffers from Corporations' Demands—Gamblers Desert to the Races.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 16.—The Herald this (Saturday) morning says:

In view of the fact that the stock market is highly professional, it was not strange to hear among the reasons ascribed in explanation of the dullnes that the traders had gone to the opening of the races. The theory is by no means far fetched, for the market has been responding more to the operations of the gambling element than anything else, and might naturally be expected to suffer, if the gamblers transfer their activity from a dull game to one which gives promise of quicker action. Aside from this, the general explanation of the market's dullness was found in the increasing demand for capital by corporations everywhere. London and Paris suffered equally with New York in this respect. Markets were dull and reactionary everywhere, and speculative sentiment was not encouraged by the fresh borrowing.

Practically nothing developed in the way of news aside from the new loan announcements. Though not hailed as a bull argument, on either stocks or bonds, the manner in which notes were snapped up here and loans were over-subscribed abroad, shows that money is seeking employment when offered at attractive figures. Still the anomaly, however, exists of individuals being able to borrow at lower rates than corporations, and to borrow cheaper also on poorer collateral. Nothing new developed from the scene of war, though the suggestion of a Russian loan negotiation in Paris was naturally associated with recent Russian disaster. Crop and weather advices were by no means uniform, but attracted little general attention. Money rates were easier, both for time and call. London prices for Americans came generally higher, and though foreigners traded upon both sides of the account, they were credited with selling on balances. Cable advices reported reactionary markets abroad and quite generally ascribed this to the new capital creations and rumors of fresh loans. In this respect all markets were practically identical, borrowing by Baltimore & Ohio of $10,000,000 being regarded as the chief cause of the New York heaviness in stocks. The local opening was quiet but steady. Dealings were very light, however, and were wholly professional. The price movements was irregular, but stagnation rather than price movement was the day's feature. The list hardened a trifle at the last on the upbidding of Consolidated Gas. Dullness was intense, however.

LOCAL BANK CALL.

The feature of the tri-weekly bank calls on the Pittsburgh stock exchange continues to be the "small-lot orders" in the market, particularly for the newer issues. At the call yesterday Colonial Trust was wanted at 325 bid, an advance of $5 a share over recently reported private transactions. Home Trust advanced to 120 bid. Quite a number of the new institutions have never had their shares listed on the exchange, and quotations on these are not publicly posted. Following were bids and offers for less than 50 shares on regularly listed stocks, and for unlisted stocks:

SWISS AND LIMBURGER CHEESE ARE ADVANCED

Other Changes in Cheese. Strawberries Are Firmer. The Flour Situation.

Several changes are made in cheese quotations. Limberger and Swiss are advanced a half cent. New York and Ohio full cream September and October makes are reported in good demand, while July and August makes are very plentiful and weak; prices on the latter are reduced accordingly. Butter is now arriving in good quantities. Eggs are selling at 18½ to 19 cents with a steady market.

There was little change yesterday in produce except that strawberries were firmer. Potatoes were selling in carload lots on track at $1 20. Arrivals continue light. Cabbage is still very firm, 5 cents per pound being the market on street. The general grocery trade is very good; all staples are in good demand. Flour is firm, and the milling price has been advanced. Earlier in the week some mills were forced to close down in view of the fact that prices they were compelled to ask were higher than merchants wanted to pay. The mills were then unable to reduce quotations in view of the high price of spot wheat. From indications there will be steady demand for flour around present prices as long as this crop lasts. Coffee is steady and the rice now offered is being taken in big quantities.

Oats are weak; hay keeps up well; receipts yesterday were very light and little trading was reported.

The following sales were made yesterday by members of the grain exchange, an advance of $2 to $3 per ton being charged on hay and feed and five cents per bushel on grain: One car No. 2 white oats, 44½c; one car No. 3 white oats, 46c; one car No. 3 white oats, 45½c; one car No. 3 white oats, 44c; two cars No. 1 timothy hay, $15 25; one car No. 1 timothy hay, $15 00; two cars Nos. 1 and 2 timothy hay $15 00; one car No. 2 timothy hay, $14 50; one car No. 1 clover mixed hay, $13 50.

HAY, GRAIN AND FEED.

Receipts bulletined: Pennsylvania, 22 cars hay; 15 cars oats; 1 car straw; 1 car feed; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 4 cars hay, 1 car corn, 1 car oats; Baltimore & Ohio, 2 cars hay, 1 car corn.

The Wool Market.

BOSTON, April 15.—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow: "The wool market is dull. The condition of the goods market does not warrant heavy purchases of the raw material. Prices of the latter are slightly lower than three months ago, holders shading a bit to clean up supplies. It is a buyers' market but holders are not disposed to cut current prices. Stocks are limited and business equally so. There is a good deal of activity in the west. Buying in Utah has started with 13c to 14c paid in the southern sections and some medium clips taken at 14½@15c. The Nevada clip is selling as fast as sheared. In Wyoming the season will open in a week or 10 days. The Southern California clip has been quietly bought up by three Boston houses. Everywhere prices to the grower are fully as high as last year, in some instances higher. Small stocks, bare lofts and easy money in Boston are incentives to operations. The latest statistics as to the Argentine clip indicate a shortage as against last year of 120,000,000 pounds, of which about 100,000,000 pounds were crossbreds and 18,000,000 pounds Merino. This in great measure accounts for the comparative high prices for medium stock, which is what is being largely consumed through the dictates of fashion by the mills of the world. The shipments of wool from Boston to date from December 31, 1903, are 68,818,576 pounds, against 75,988,875 pounds at the same time last year. The receipts to date are 55,943,162 pounds, against 61,913,008 pounds for the same period last year."

The Drygoods Market.

NEW YORK, April 15.—General apathy continues to surround the drygoods market, and naturally, under these conditions, there is more or less irregularity to prices. Buyers are not interested, even at concessions which are being offered, and little is gained by a display of weakness except where it is necessary to realize on the product, which is necessarily accumulating.

GRAIN INCREASE BRINGS WEAKNESS TO MARKETS

Minneapolis Reports Have Decided Influence on Prices at Chicago.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHICAGO, April 15.—Unofficial figures forecasting an increase instead of a decrease in the acreage of spring wheat caused weakness in the wheat market today. At the close the July option showed a loss of ⅝@¾c from yesterday's final quotations. Corn is down ⅜c. Oats are off ¼c and provisions 5@12½c.

Small receipts and predictions of freezing weather in Kansas had a strengthening influence on wheat prices at the opening. July being up a shade to ⅛@¼c at 87⅞@87¾c. Crop damage reports were again in evidence. In addition the information that came from the northwest in regard to seeding was still bullish. The pit crowd was in humor to listen to that kind of news and matters of an opposite character were given scant attention until after many of the bulls had bought wheat which they could not carry. That was done easily, for there were few orders from outside traders. In the meantime the market had developed added firmness, the July delivery having sold up to 89½c. Toward the middle of the session sentiment suddenly veered and the market weakened rapidly. The cause of the pronounced change in attitude was a report by a Minneapolis trade journal to the effect that spring wheat in the Dakotas and Minnesota would probably show a small increase notwithstanding expectations of a decrease. Lower prices in all outside markets emphasized the weakness here. Several of the larger commission houses had long wheat for sale and there was also some selling for short account. The market lacked any influential support and continued weak until the close. After selling off to 86⅝c, July closed at 87c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 141,600 bushels. Primary receipts were 212,300 bushels, compared with 256,900 bushels a year ago. Exports of wheat and flour for the week, according to Bradstreet's, were equal to 1,214,000 bushels. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 157 cars, against 302 cars last week and 134 cars a year ago.

The most important feature in trading in corn was the selling of May by the principal holder and a consequent decline of nearly 2c in the price of that delivery. The pit crowd followed the lead of the big bull and for a time the selling was quite general. There was not much July on the market until late in the day, but the weakness in the nearby delivery finally brought out quite free selling, resulting in a decline of over 1c. The cash market was firm, but cables were easier. The close was weak and near the low point. July opened unchanged to ⅛c lower at 50⅞@51c, sold between 49⅞@50c and 51¼c, and closed at 50c. May ranged between 51⅞c and 53⅝c, closing at 52⅛c. Local receipts were 83 cars, with 41 of contract grade.

Oats showed considerable strength in the face of the weakness in wheat and corn. There was a good demand from commission houses and elevator interests, but offerings were light. Crop advices were almost a unit on the question of late seeding. Additional bull factors were small receipts and an improvement in cash demand. The market reacted somewhat on the late break in wheat, but the close was steady. July opened a shade to ⅛@¼c higher at 37⅞c to 38c, sold between 37⅞@ and 38½c and closed at 38@38⅛c. Local receipts were 57 cars.

Pit traders sold provisions in a small way on the weakness in corn, which resulted in small declines throughout the list. There was enough demand to cause a recovery and the market closed easy with July pork down 12½c to $12 37½; July lard was 5c off at $6 75; ribs closed off 5@7½c at $6 50@6 52½.

TWO-HUNDRED-BARREL WELL IN TYLER COUNTY, W. VA.

The best well drilled in yesterday is in the Big Injun sand development, near Wick, Tyler county, W. Va. It is owned by the Peoples Banking and Trust Company and is its test on the Delana Ankrom farm. At 35 feet in the Big Injun the pay was encountered, and the well is a natural producer, good for 200 barrels a day. In the same district the Carter Oil Company's No. 5 on the J. W. Musgrave farm is holding up at 150 barrels a day. The Melrose Oil and Gas Company has given its No. 2 on the F. H. Ewell farm a shot and increased its production to 75 barrels a day from the Big Injun.

On the east side of the Folsom district, Harrison county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its test on the Ida Talkington farm into the top of the Gordon and has a small show of oil and gas. In the same district the South Penn has drilled its test on the Ashcraft-Robinson farm into the stray sand 30 feet and has developed no oil. No. 3 on the Jesse Ashcraft farm has been drilled through the stray and found no oil, and is now drilling in the top of the Gordon. The South Penn has drilled its test on the F. A. Parish farm 46 feet into the stray and has no oil or gas.

North of the Folsom district, Marion county, the South Penn has drilled its test on the R. Cummings farm through the fifth sand and has a duster. The same company has drilled its test on the G. L. Moore farm 27 feet into the stray and has no oil.

In the Smithfield district, Wetzel county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 61 on the B. W. Peterson farm 20 feet into the Gordon, and the hole has filled up 500 feet with fluid. It will make a small pumper.

In the Salem district, Harrison county, the South Penn has drilled its No. 18 on the L. Haymond farm through the Gordon and found that formation barren. In the same district No. 1 on the G. E. McIntyre farm has been drilled through all sands and is dry.

Near West Union, Doddridge county, the Castle Brook Carbon Black Company has drilled its No. 3 on the T. McLain farm through the Gordon and has a fair gasser. In the same district the Carter Oil Company has drilled its test on the Frank Cooper farm through the Gordon and has a duster.

In the Bealls Mills district, in Lewis county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 6 on the William Griggs farm through all sands and has a duster. A light gas pressure was developed in the fifth sand.

On McFarlan creek, Ritchie county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its test wells on the E. M. Wilson and C. C. Dewees farm through the salt sand, and both are dry in that formation. They are now drilling to the Big Injun.

In the Eureka district, Pleasants county, the Vespertine Oil Company has drilled its No. 28 on the F. K. Bills farm into the Big Injun and has a show for a 50-barrel producer from that level. In the same district Tate & Patterson have drilled their No. 4 on the R. Kester farm through the Cow Run sand and have a duster in that formation.

In the Waverly district, Wood county, the Consolidated Oil Company has drilled its No. 34 on the J. H. Cooper farm through the Cow Run sand and has a 15-barrel producer.

Near Nineveh, Greene county, the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company's No. 2 on the Dr. W. S. Throckmorton farm is holding up at 112 barrels a day. It seems to have struck its pace and has averaged about that amount for the past three days.

On the Economy tract, Beaver county, P. M. Shannon has drilled his No. 90 through the 100-foot and has a show for a very light pumper.

In the Smith Ferry district, in the same county, W. J. Coursin & Co. have completed their test on the Joseph Bryan farm and developed a very light showing of oil. It was given a shot, but did not improve, and will likely be abandoned. In the same district John C. Rayl has completed his test on the Robert McGoffick farm and has a duster.

On the Ohio side, in the Trail Run district, Monroe county, the Ann Oil Company has drilled its test on the P. W. Eddington farm through the Big Injun sand and has a duster.

A China Closet of Distinction

One of the most praiseworthy fads of the present generation is the collection of rare and beautiful pieces of chinaware.

You may have some rare pieces of your own, but they may be hidden away in a cupboard somewhere out of sight and no one knows you are the possessor of anything of the sort.

A china closet like the one shown here is absolutely necessary if you wish properly to display your antique or other rare china pieces. This china closet is made for this particular purpose. It is a rare piece of furniture of artistic design and richly carved. It has a mirror back, which greatly enhances the beauty of the china, and bent plate glass front and sides.

There is ample space in this china closet for a good sized collection. It is 48 inches wide, 20 inches deep and 70 inches high; claw feet.

The variety of closets in this stock is such as to enable one, no matter how particular, to gratify his taste. The prices are always moderate enough to be attractive.

HIGHLAND BREWING COMPANY PAYS THE STATE FOR A LICENSE

But 190 Applications Yet Remain to be Heard in the Retail List.

OLDEST TAVERN IS REFUSED

The Highland Brewing Company yesterday filed its application with the state treasurer at Harrisburg, and paid $1,000 license fee required for a state license. The license must be granted under the law, which enables a brewing company to operate under a state license when it has not been refused by a county court. The state treasurer has no option in the matter, but must grant the license, no matter how many remonstrances are filed. The only restrictions placed upon a brewery operating under a state license is that it can only sell to licensed dealers. This is entirely satisfactory to the Highland Brewing Company, as it does not want to sell to any other concerns.

License court will make an effort to finish the retail list on Monday. There remain 190 cases to be heard, and these have been divided so that they can be finished in two days. Applicants from Crescent township to Versailles township will be heard today. The wholesale list, beginning with the brewers, will be taken up Tuesday.

The formal order granting and refusing applicants in Braddock was handed down last night. The decision in the Glassport cases are still held up and will hardly be handed down until the retail list is ended.

Charles Juergens of the Bell tavern, West Liberty, was refused because he was charged with having sold to minors. This house has had a license since 1848.

Remonstrances by Wholesale.

Every applicant from Baldwin township had a strong remonstrance to face from citizens and church people on the ground of lack of necessity. The remonstrants were represented by Attorney John Marron, who made things decidedly interesting for both witnesses and applicants. The applicants urged that the population in the township had increased during the past year until a greater number of licensed houses were a necessity. This contention led Mr. Marron to remark that in view of the fact that the population had increased he failed to see the reason why this should be followed by an increase in the means of creating lawlessness.

Andrew R. Robinson of Collier township was objected to by a volunteer remonstrant because he had a bench on the outside of the house where loafers sat the year round, which led Judge J. H. Collier to remark that the past winter had been a trifle cold for persons to take their afternoon siesta in the open air.

John J. Shenkel, the select councilman from the Thirty-fourth ward, and his brothers, F. H. and J. W. Shenkel, 2-4 Westinghouse avenue, were asked where they got the $12,000 they paid for the house within the last year. It was developed that $5,000 had been borrowed from the Pittsburgh Brewing Company, and the case went over until the court could decide if this does not conflict with the law forbidding brewers to be interested in retail houses.

WEATHER CONDITIONS ARE HURTING STATE OF TRADE

Southern States Show Best Business Status in Entire Country.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, April 15.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

Tardy spring weather following on unusually severe winter makes it difficult to restore satisfactory trade conditions, but it is encouraging to find at many points that this unseasonable weather is the only cause of complaint, and there is always hope that the early losses may be made up, at least in large measure, when the conditions become normal. In the meantime sales of drygoods are restricted and stocks in all positions from producer to consumer are larger than is desirable. Aside from the cotton states, where business is brisk, the week's dispatches indicate that early gains were maintained, but little further progress occurred. Labor controversies are still an adverse factor. Railway earnings in the first week of April were 7 per cent smaller than last year.

No definite check to progress in the iron and steel industry is discerned, although it lacks uniformity and in some departments it is difficult to find encouraging signs. In so far as pressure for immediate delivery is concerned, bar iron and steel are most prominent, makers of agricultural implements being notably importunate. Not only is it difficult to secure early delivery of bars, but shipments four weeks hence are considered prompt and some orders run up to the end of the year.

Floods in the west have made it impossible to begin the much proposed structural work and aside from supplies for repair shops, the railways are still operating on a moderate scale. The ore situation remains unsettled.

Firmness and activity continue in the Chicago packer hide market, and foreign dry hides are held steady by the prompt absorption of arrivals. Although quotations are unchanged in the leather market, some improvement in tone is noted. New England footwear shops have received but few supplementary fall orders from salesmen in the west and eastern wholesalers have ample stocks or staple lines to meet current requirements without seeking prompt delivery from manufacturers.

In textile manufacturing there is no improvement. The recent upward tendency of cotton goods has given place to a market distinctly favoring purchasers. This is usually a dull season in men's wear woolens and worsteds, and the past week has proved no exception.

Failures this week number 225 in the United States, against 212 last year, and 16 in Canada, compared with 16 a year ago.

TRIAL MAY GO OVER.

No Preparations Made For Milovar Pattrovick, Charged With Murder.

The trial of Milovar Pattrovick, charged with the murder of Contractor Ferguson in Washington county, may be postponed until the September term of criminal court. Nothing has been done by either the prosecution or defense in preparing for the trial of Pattrovick. May 23 had been set for the begining of the trial. The disposition of the supreme court in the appeal of Milovar Kovovick, who was convicted of murder in the first degree, will determine the time of Pattrovick's trial.

Attorneys Burke and Hall are busy preparing for the arguments before the supreme court and expect to get a new trial. They will be bitterly opposed by District Attorney Underwood and Attorney John Marron.

PENNSYLVANIA WILL ELEVATE TRACKS THROUGH ASPINWALL

The Pennsylvania railroad is now figuring on elevating its connections with the Brilliant cutoff through Aspinwall. After a lengthy fight with the borough council, a settlement has been reached whereby certain concessions have been made by the borough, but the railroad did not get what it originally went after in the way of street vacations and will accordingly have to build elevated tracks over several of the thoroughfares.

In anticipation of the agreement a force of men was started to work on the cut off in Aspinwall over two weeks ago. The Pennsylvania will get the use of River, Eastern and Center avenues. In return the borough will get $40,000 and a strip of ground 300 feet in length along the Allegheny. This will be used as a wharf. The land is directly in the rear of the light and water plant. The railroad will also give a second piece of land in front of the plant.

Since deciding to run the Brilliant cutoff to Aspinwall the Pennsylvania railroad has bought nearly $400,000 worth of property in that borough. After getting in possession of such a large amount of property the company thought it would be an easy matter to have four important streets vacated for the use of its main line. After several conferences with District Engineer of Construction Brown, a committee representing the borough council has drawn up an agreement which will be presented to the council shortly for approval and passage.

Visitors Due Here Today.

The eastern members of the association of passenger representatives of the Pennsylvania railroad are scheduled to arrive in Pittsburgh today or tonight. Several of the most important officials, however, will not get here until tomorrow morning, just in time to catch the special train which will leave here for St. Louis. The association will visit every important point on the Pennsylvania lines west, holding its semi-annual meeting in Chicago on Wedesday. The train will return here Saturday night. About 40 officials will make the trip.

Old B. & O. Rumor Revived.

Since L. F. Loree left the Baltimore & Ohio to become president of the Rock Island, if rumors are to be believed, every important official of the former road has received a pressing offer to follow their former chief. Among the first changes mentioned were those of G. L. Potter and C. S. Sims. Potter is still with the Baltimore & Ohio, as well as Sims, and both are likely to remain. A report now comes from Baltimore that Sims will resign as general manager of the Baltimore & Ohio to go with the Rock Island and will be succeeded by Arthur Hale, now general superintendent of transportation.

Railroad Notes.

The Union Switch and Signal Company of Swissvale has shipped to St. Louis one of the largest interlocking plants ever built. Two other machines of the same kind are now being built at Swissvale.

W. M. Wardrop has been appointed assistant trainmaster of the Erie & Ashtabula division of the Pennsylvania lines at New Castle. He was formerly connected with the general offices of the company. He is a son of R. M. Wardrop, president of the Peoples National bank.

The Three Rivers

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, April 15.—The stage of the river at 6 p. m. today marked 20.6 feet and falling, making a fall of .2 during the past 24 hours. Weather partly clear and cloudy; warmer, with slight showers. Packets came in and went out as per schedule. The Peters Lee arrived this afternoon for her initial trip in the new service between Cincinnati, Memphis and lower river points. Reports indicate the new venture will be a success based upon the heavy consignments awaiting the boats of the company. The Cruiser arrived with her tow and returned to Pittsburgh with empties today. The Tom Rees No. 2, Fred Wilson and Sam Clark passed down with tows for Louisville. Towboats due tomorrow are the Valiant, Enterprise, Sam Brown, Ironsides, Fallie, J. C. Risher, Jim Wood and G. W. Thomas. There has not been much Kanawha coal arriving at this port for the past month on account of the slack water in taht stream. All of the operators who deal in the Cincinnati territory are anxious that the dams be raised so that they can move their cargoes from that point.

RAIN IS NOW WANTED.

Only Barges Are Going Out and Few of Them—Farm Produce Arriving.

There was about six feet of water in the local harbor yesterday, and river interests are now waiting anxiously for rain. Until there is higher water no coalboats can be sent out. There is very little coal in the harbor. The good stage of the past two weeks has diminished the supply rapidly. As fast as boats came in with empties they were started back down river. According to reports, there is no shortage of coal now at southern ports and present shipments are for storage purposes, especially at extreme southern points. The Ed Roberts left yesterday with 17 barges. The B. D. Wood may go out tomorrow with barges. The local harbor is still half filled with empty craft. Packets arriving yesterday had good trips of farm produce and fair passenger lists.

Arrivals.

Virginia, Pennywitt, Cincinnati.
Lorena, Wallace, Zanesville.
Greenland, Greene, Charleston.
Rose Hite, Williams, Morgantown.

Departures.

Rose Hite, Williams, Morgantown.
Greenland, Greene, Charleston.

Local River Notes.

The Virginia will be the Cincinnati packet today and the Lorena will be the Zanesville packet.

Capt. R. R. Abrams, superintendent of the Morgantown packet line, was at Brownsville yesterday.

The stage of water at Davis Island dam at 9 o'clock last night was 8.1 feet and the river was falling slowly.

James Rees & Sons have completed plans for a wharfboat to take the place of the Big Sandy, which was destroyed at Cincinnati during the winter.

Col. Charles F. Powell, formerly of Pittsburgh, and now in charge of the coast defenses at New York harbor and a large part of the North Atlantic coast, with headquarters at New London, Conn., was in the city yesterday. He is on the way home from an inspection trip and came here after closing up work at New Orleans. He will call on Capt. W. L. Sibert, who succeeded him, today.
